TREASURE CHEST 1979

Oh Mitch, the boy! the school year finally is here. I mean the end of the year is around. you're the best guy in the band. you've been a good worker. and the good one. Take it easy. Stay cool.

Bob Siegers
'79

Mitch,
Well the year's finally over and we made it through in one piece. Have a great year next year. Good luck in Coming Years
Love Always
Radar '79

Mitch,
You are a "Hot" trumpet player. You better stick with it or else!!!
Wasn't Jazz band a blast. It was outrageous. It was good too. So all see ya next year. Good maybe probably. Have a good high school education.

Terry Thomas

Mitch, Go for a good "G" a at least an "F". You could very well turn out to be the best lead trumpet at Bellflower. Stay at it and thanks for being "good folks"

Robert A. Newbill

Mitch, really glad you're going this summer. I'm sure you'll do a good job. I met a nice person and have a nice year. Have a nice day. Keep up the good work.

P.S.

mitch,
I hope you enjoyed band
this year, I know you will next year (even though I won't be there). You and Kelly can make Jazz Band work, You better or I'll kick your butt. Well about all I can say is good luck and enjoy your self next year. Rich Marriott
'first trumpet 79'

CHINCO of the decade,
WHAT'S CRANKN DOOD, ARE you being mellow, you really aut to see my Grandpa about your PINNER alergies.
Maybe we'll get to Louie ARMSTRONG Awards. YOU better get jammn ON that trumpet - maybe i'll teach you How to play high. Stay mellow, keep complimenting MRS. JONES, DONT
TAKE too many Drugs
The Pinner
Todd Watts

Mitch. thanks for all of the good low trumpet support
this year in Jazz
good luck in every thing
you Do and I'll see you next year.
Dave Drumcorps (Marg)

Mitchell,
Kind of self centered,
don't you think huh! Well
had a good time this year.
Now I really know how to have fun. Just go on Tour with the B.H.S Band.
See ya next year. here ya lots
Bue Drum Line '81' Cindy Lewis

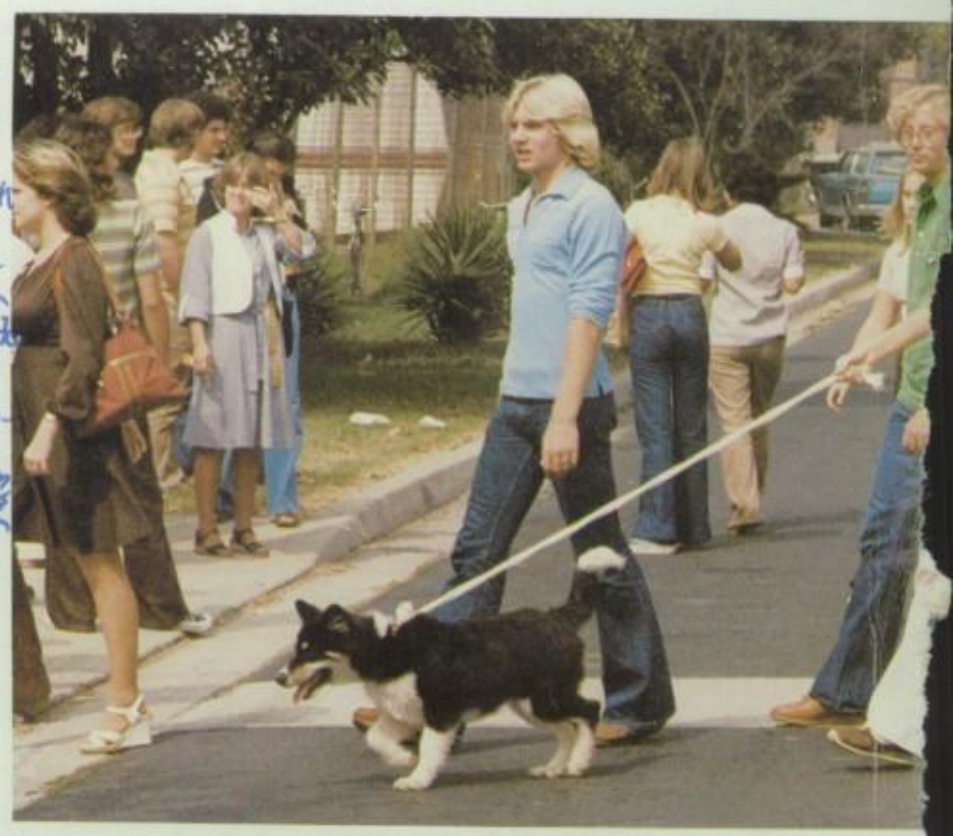
Buc Pride is giving your all, whether you're . . .

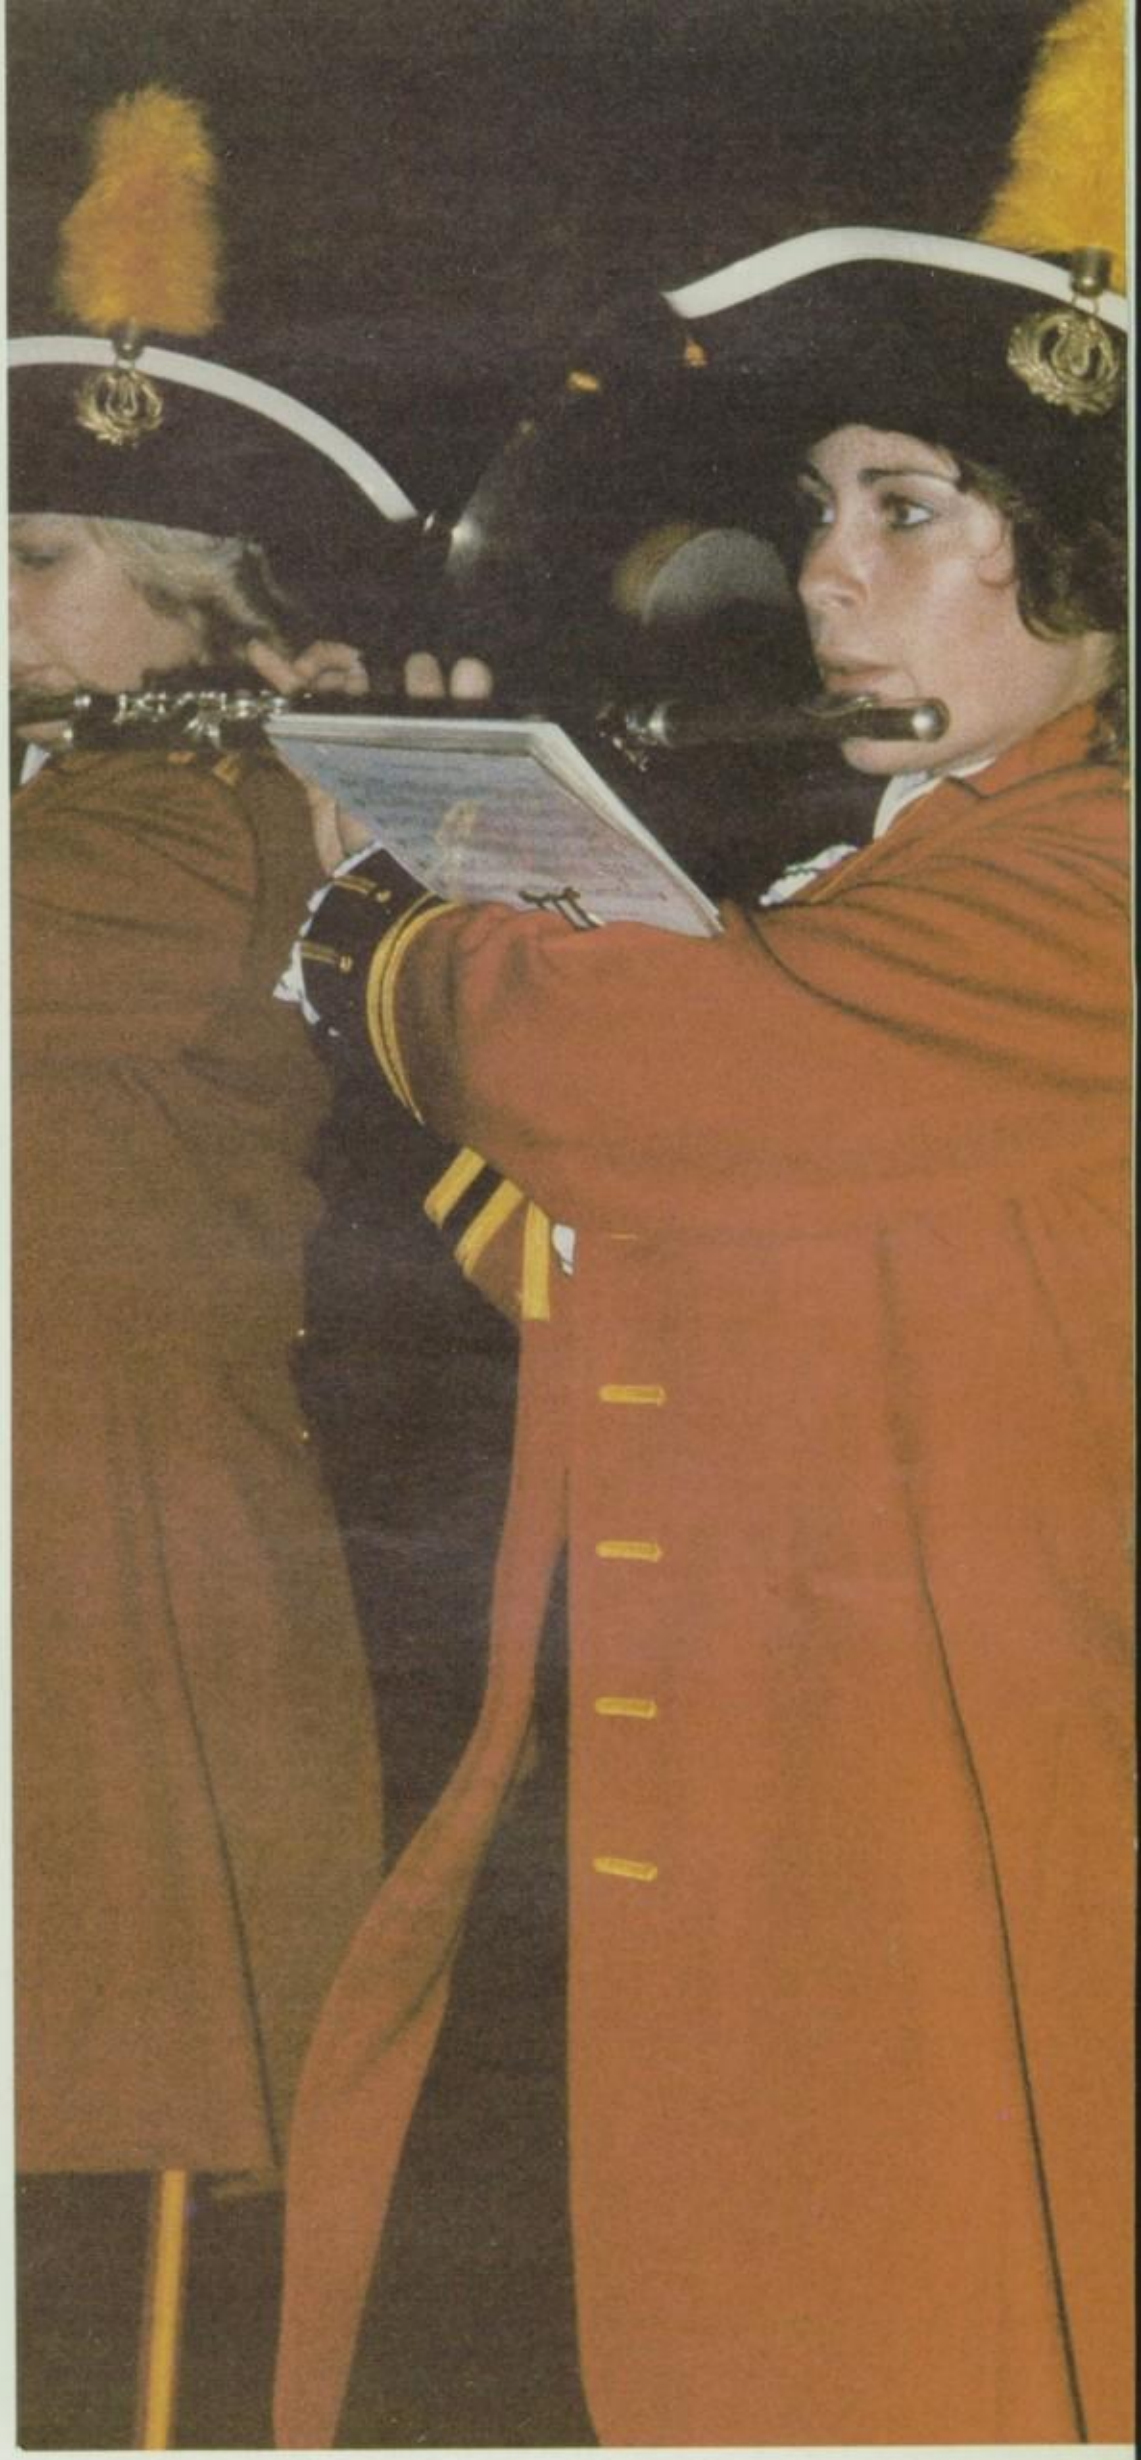
Watchers or walkers,

Rooters or tooters;

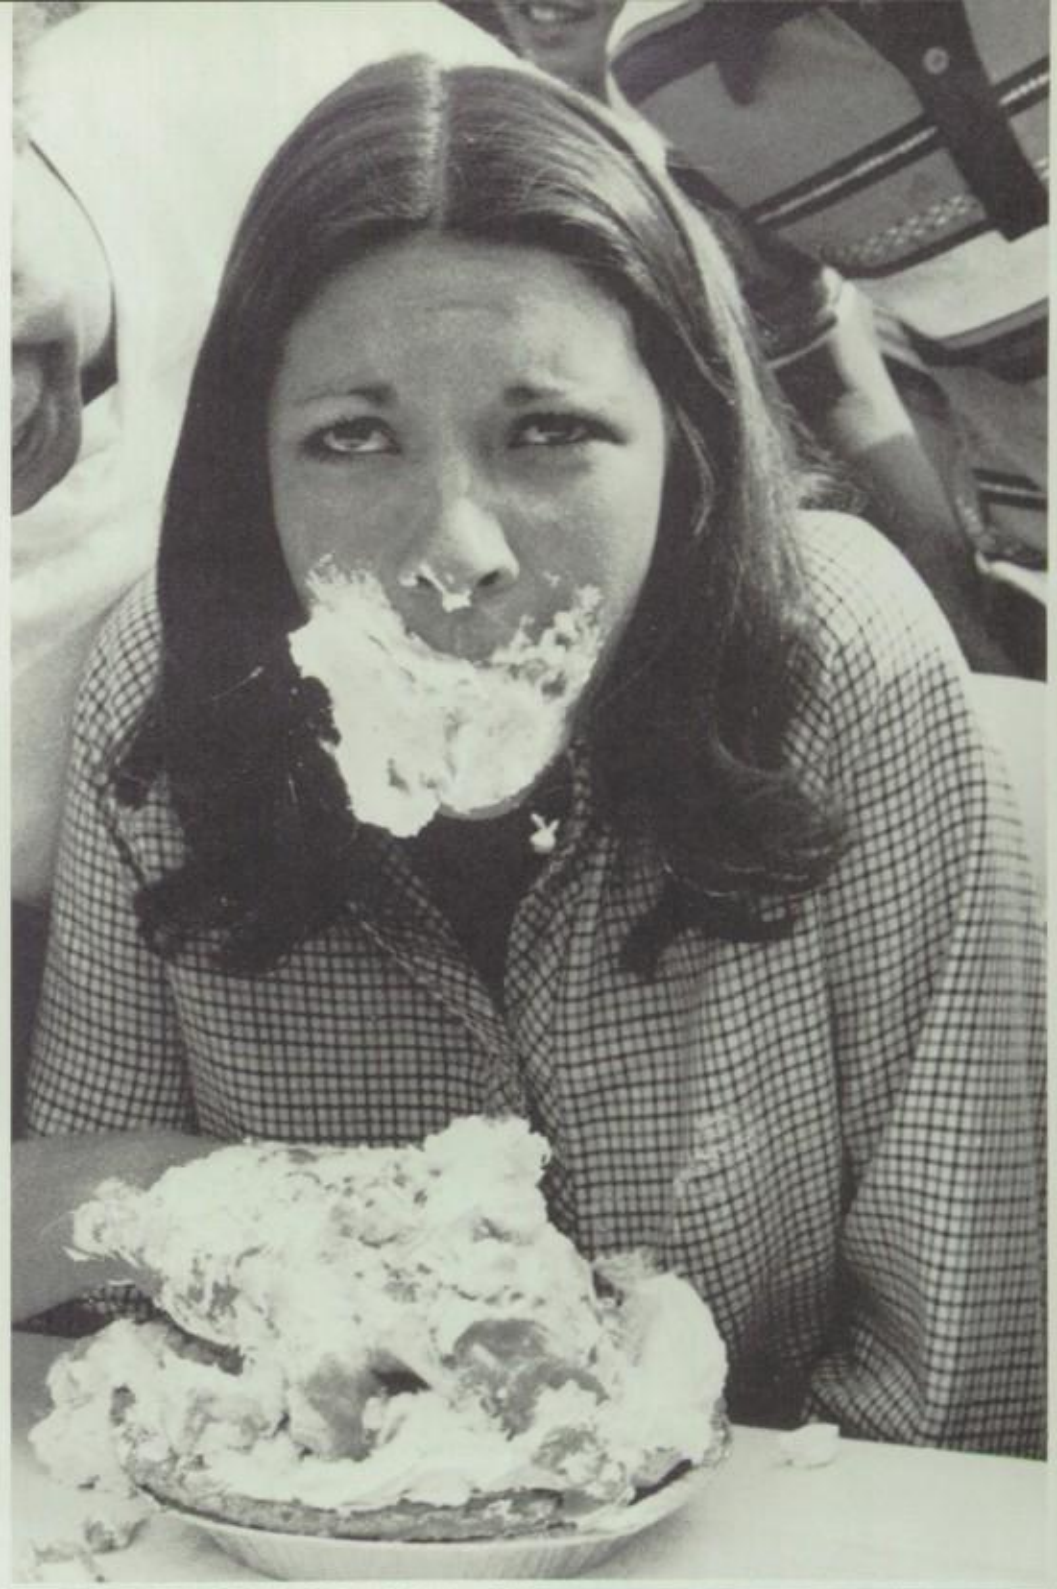
Mitch It's been great blowing up the Chem. Lab. Good luck as a Sr. Have a great Summer. Have a good band

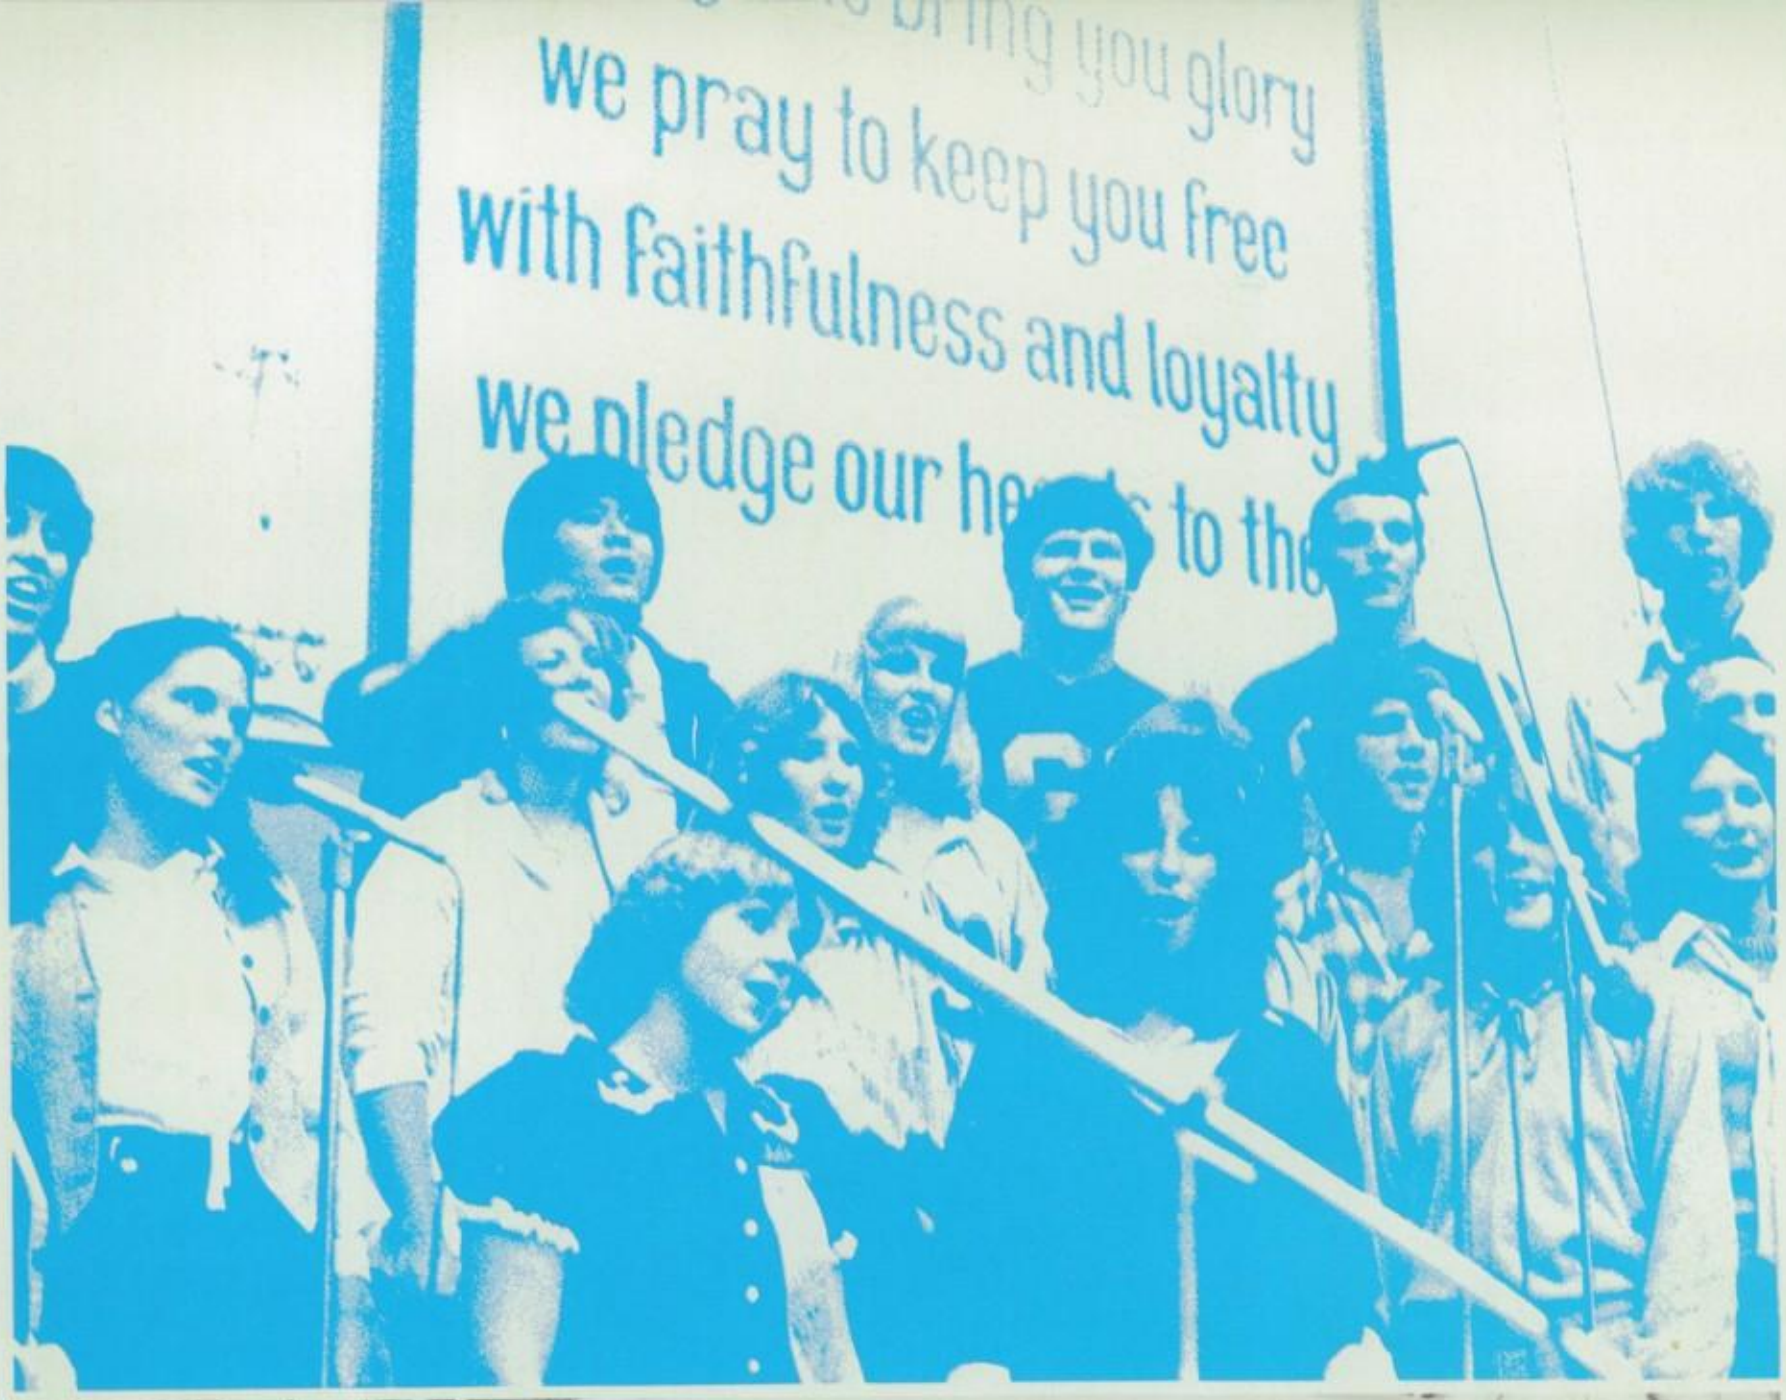
PS Robert Bell Now when you see something this good Remember me.





Smilers or spankers
and stuffers or singers;

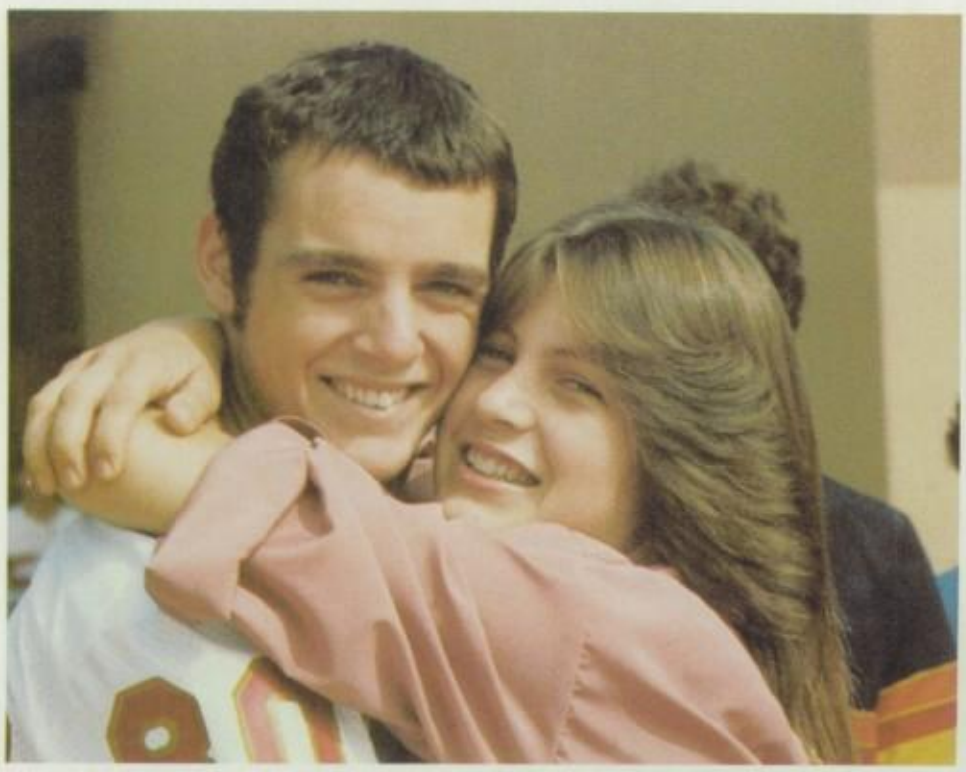


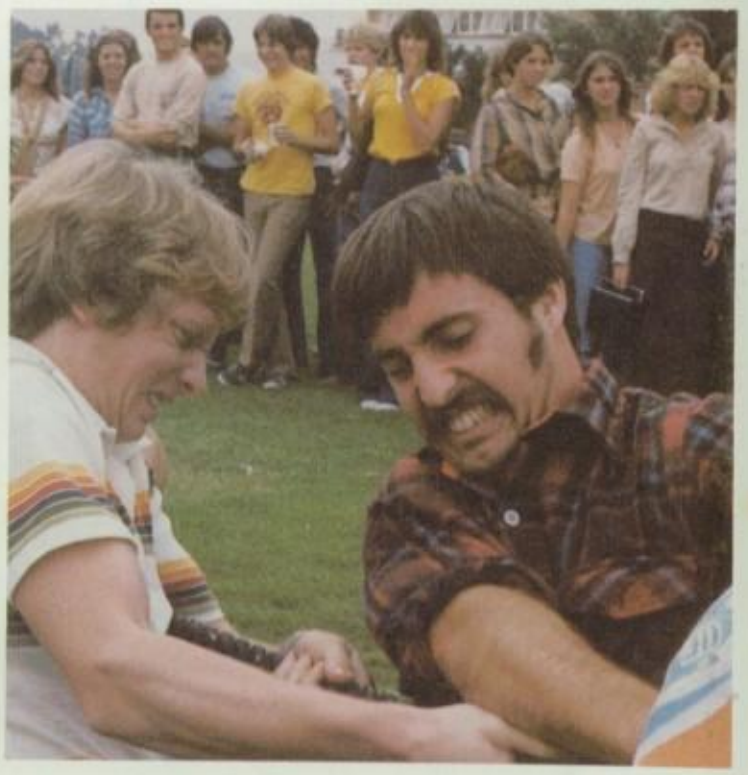


we pray to keep you free
with faithfulness and loyalty

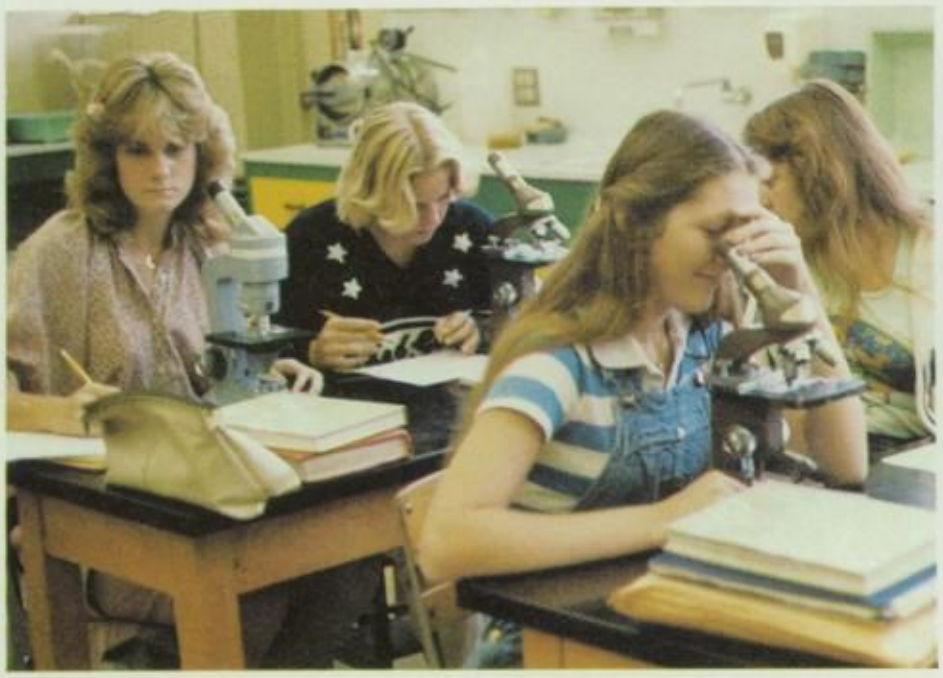
Leaders and lovers

or flexers and fighters;





Players and painters



or peepers and sleepers.

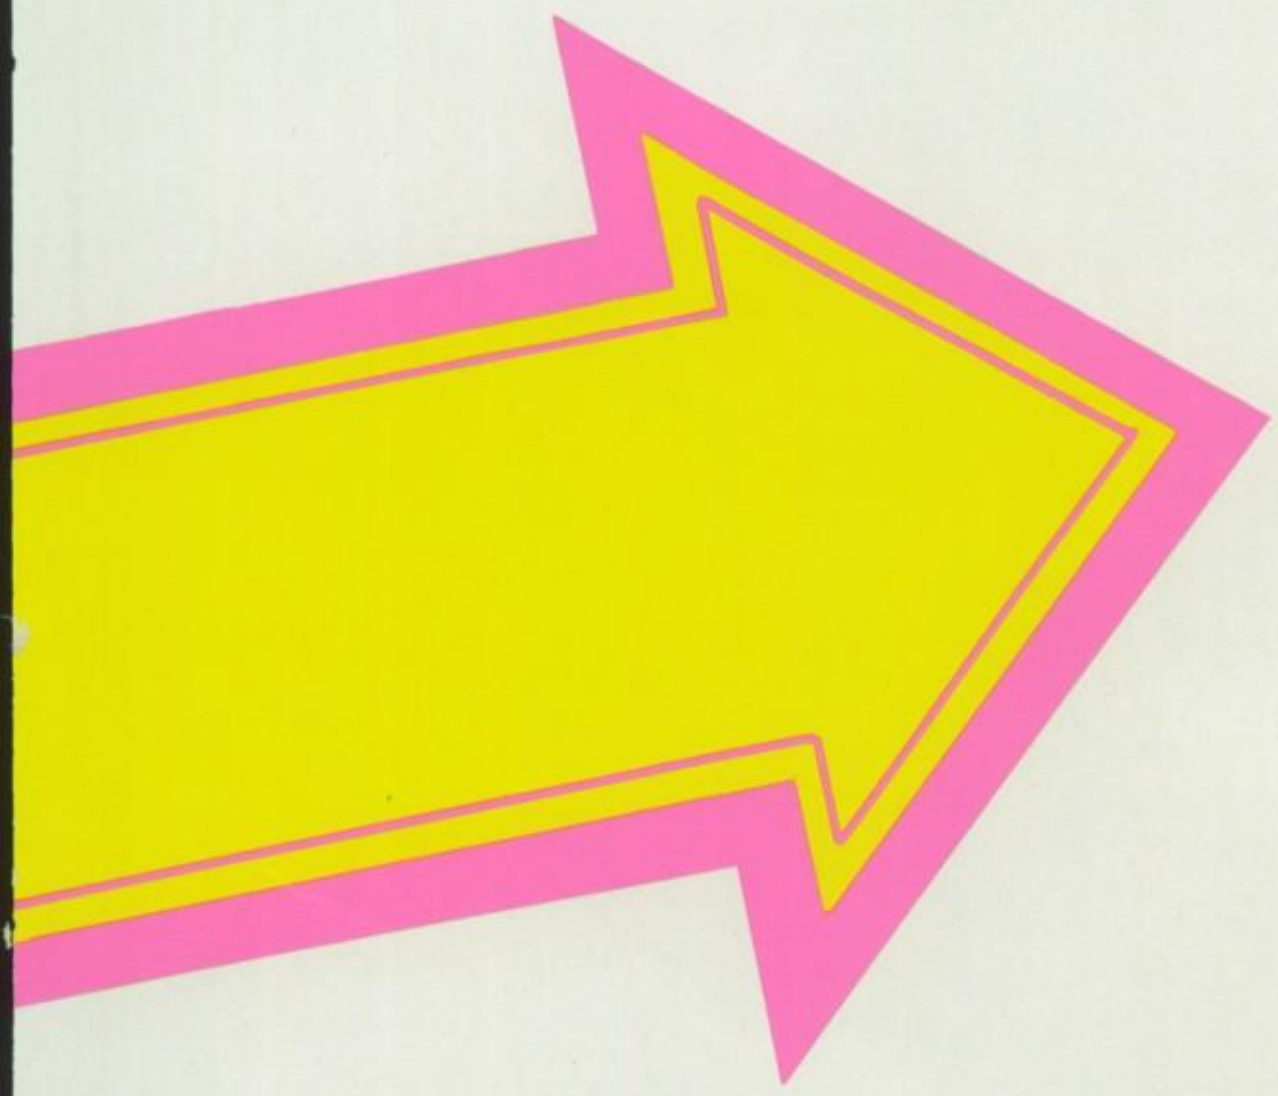
Whatever your goal,

easy or not,

Buc Pride means . . .

. . . Giving It All You Got!!!

SENIORS



Queen Grace Yoshinaga

1979 Homecoming Court

Princess Jennifer Annis

Princess Ginger Evans

Princess Helene Hunsaker

Princess Sherry Jacobsma

The Homecoming Week's activities included the VW stuff, pie eating contest, tug-o-war, pyramid building, frisbee toss, tomato throwing, the egg blow (all mixed amid several food fights). They helped form the theme, "Anything Goes." Friday marked the formal introduction of the Court to the student body during the assembly. The highlight, however, came 10 hours later below a spectacular fireworks show as princess Grace Yoshinaga was crowned Homecoming Queen 1978

ACTIVITIES

Assemblies

Homecoming Week

Daily activities that busied both the students and the 1978 Homecoming Court included the egg blowing contest, the tossing of frisbees and tomatos, and the pie eating contest. Other happenings involved pyramid building, body painting and the VW stuff. Although the daily events were hampered by several disruptions, the nighttime activities ran smoothly. During the evenings, the junior and senior classes sponsored an ice cream social and a pizza hoot. The climax of the exciting week came during Friday's football halftime show when Grace Yoshinaga was crowned Queen.

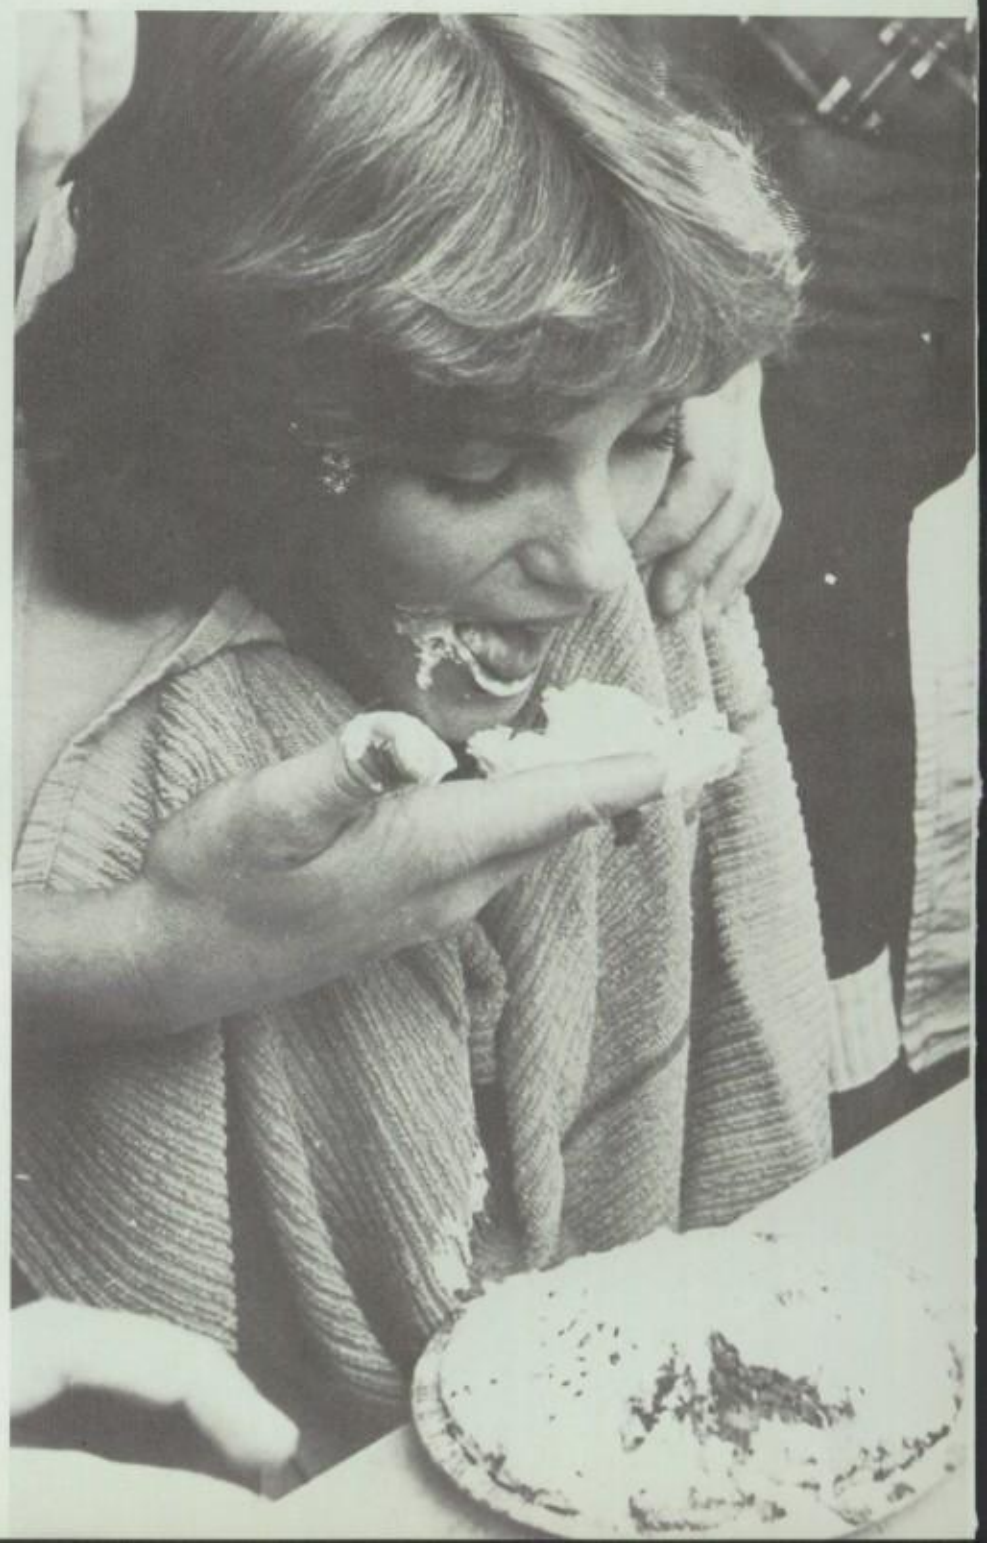
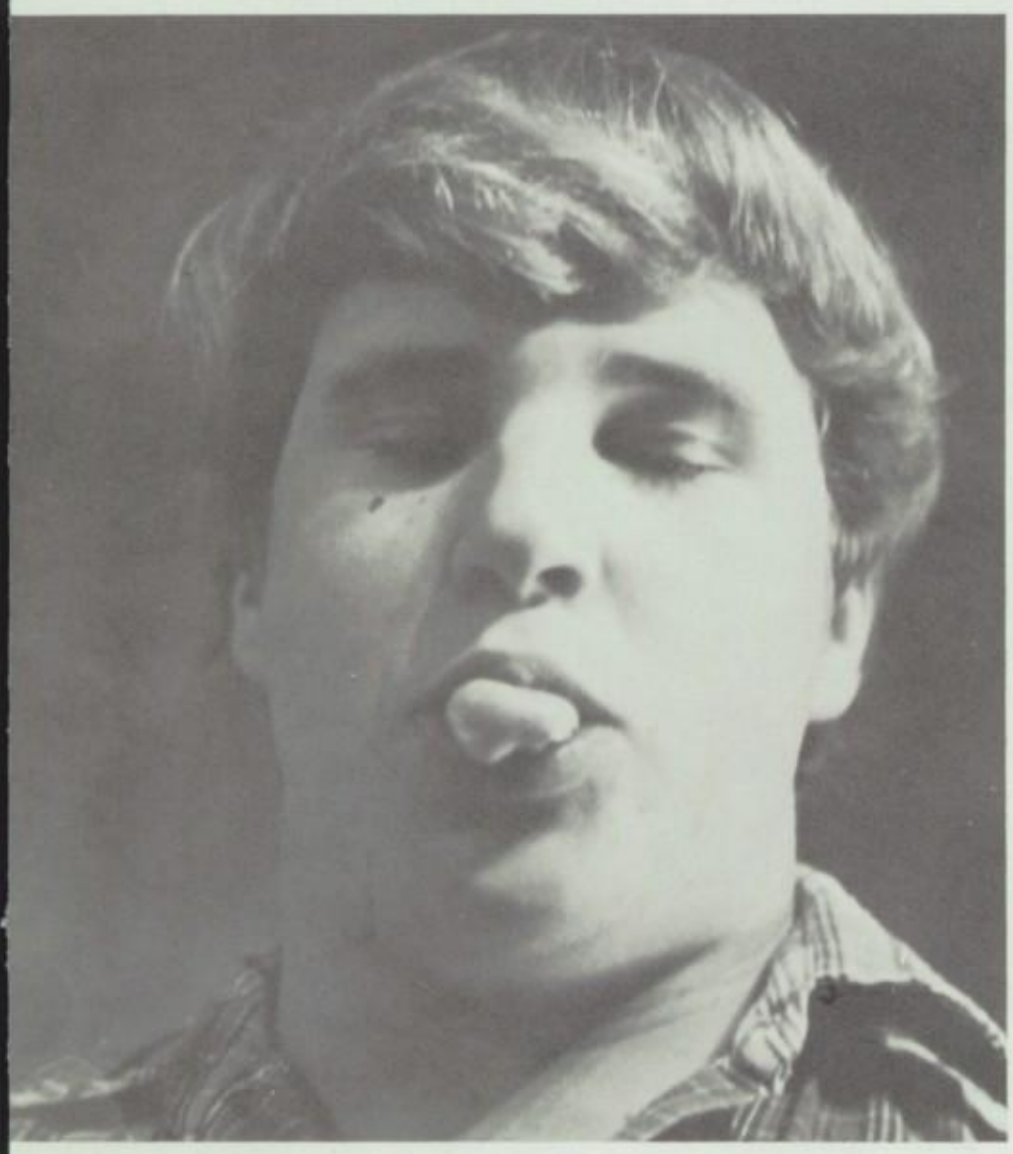
Winter Sports Festival Week





Although an untimely rainstorm water-logged most of Winter Sports Festivel week and its activities, the showers didn't dampen the spirit of the seven seniors chosen to the 1979 Court. The princesses and their escorts were kept busy with many contests, sponsored by various clubs and classes, including bubble gum blowing, peanut butter and cracker whistle, milk shake drinking, water balloon tossing, obstacle racing and, of course, a chocolate pie eating contest. At the assembly on Friday, the top seven were reintroduced and the honored titles of King Ugly Man and King Crazy Legs were awarded to seniors David Bybee and Craig Sorbom, respectively. The climax of the entire week came that evening during the basketball game halftime when Julie Hudson was crowned WSF Queen, and the Bucs went on to defeat Excelsior.

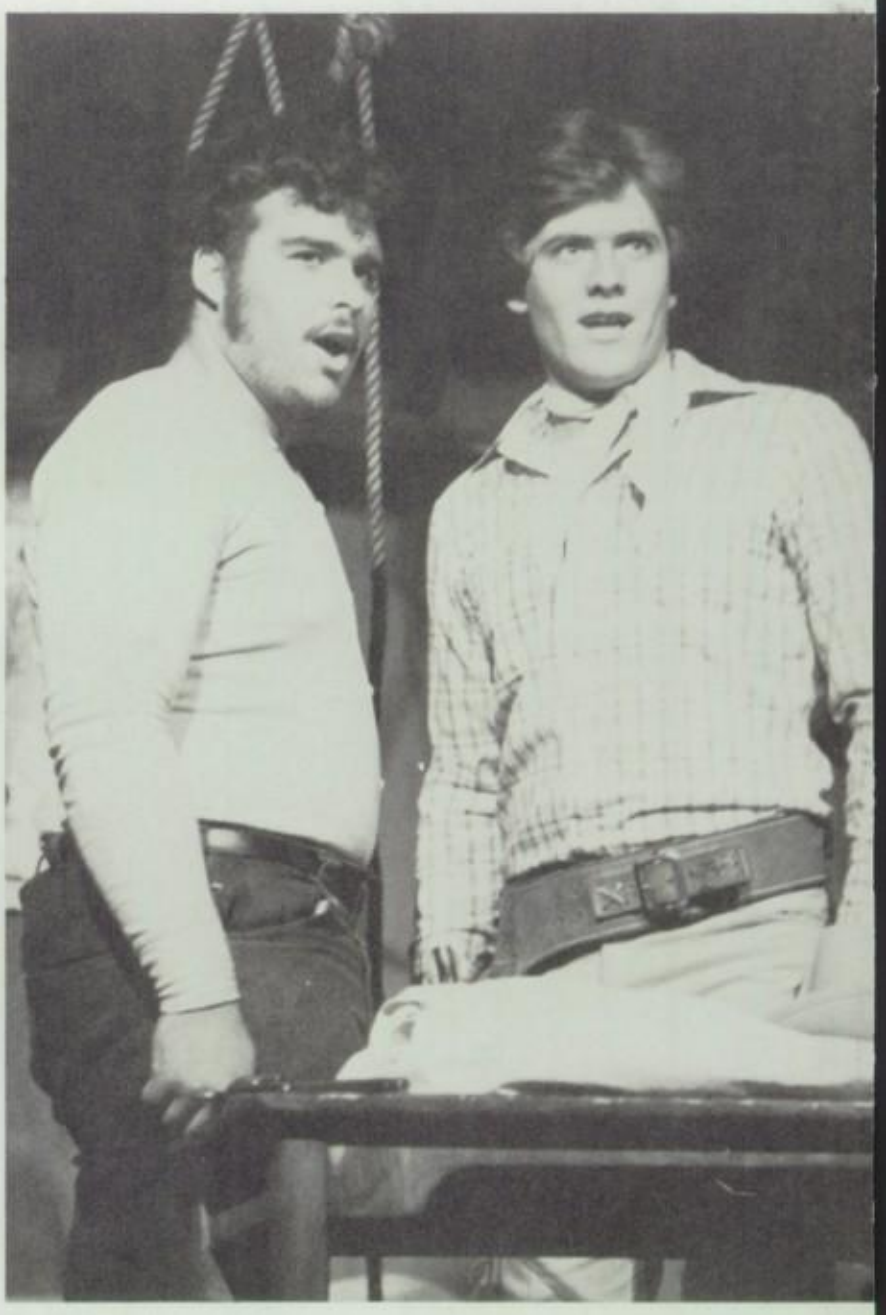
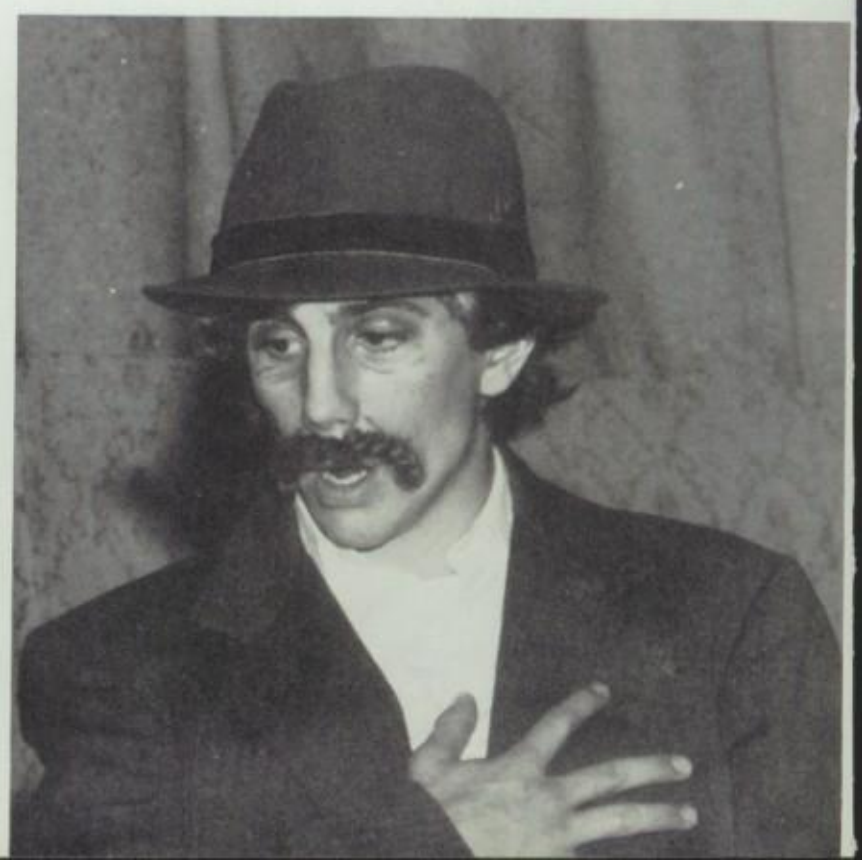
Oklahoma!

The BHS Drama, Music, Art and Home Ec. groups joined forces this year to produce the third annual all school musical, "Oklahoma!" The play was packed each of the five nights it ran, and the cast put on an encore performance for the orchestra and people who missed the previous presentation. After much success with this year's classic musical, the combined organizations are considering "South Pacific" as a possibility for next year.



Performing Arts



Keeping everyone at BHS entertained is a tough job, but the daring Drama Dept. undertook the task. For a mere 25 cents, lunchtimes were livened up by Brown Bag performances, while bigger projects were in the making. The "Man who came to Dinner" and the musical "Oklahoma" were the major productions of the year, but in between their presentations, the Thespian's home base, the Little Theater, was given a face lift with the repainting of its interior and the addition of new curtains.

Varsity Football

(Above) gazing intently on their team's progress downfield, seniors Brian Hunsaker and Scott Lovering and injured junior Clint Begley are a study in concentration. (Above right) looking down the barrel of a bullet pass and (right) catching a mighty bomb at the moment of release, the cameras stopped the Buc varsity gridders in frenzied action. The gridders wound up their season at 3-6.

Quiet moments (far left) on the bench and bootlegging from the backfield (below, far left), striving when the odds are stacked against you, (left), running for the suddenly invisible daylight (below, center) and flaring tempers (below) are all part of the scene which is high school football.

photos by Rusty Morris

The coaches attend to Dematto's leg cramp (top left), after Dematto had plunged for extra yardage (bottom left). Wil Biddings drags along an Artesia defender (bottom right).

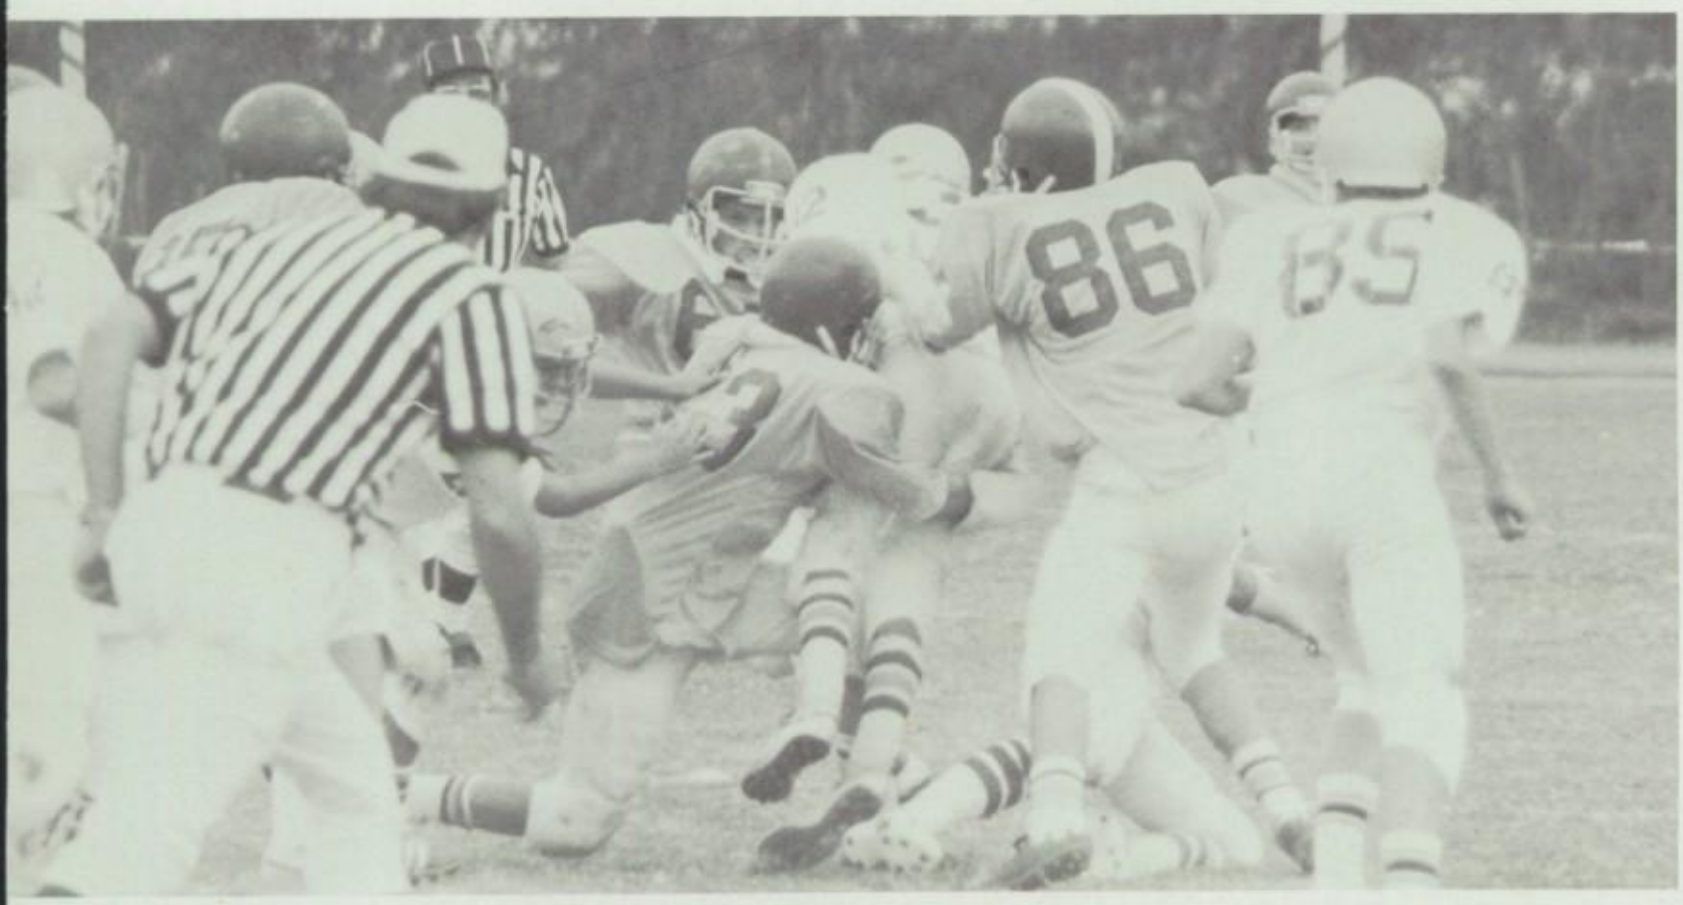
Frosh Football



Starting on the long road to varsity, this year's frosh gridders begin polishing the skills that might someday take them to a championship. Defending, passing, running and open field tackling are all necessary to the game skills.

photos by Terry Kennedy

Cross Country

Pushing themselves to the point of total exhaustion and then some is nothing unusual for Bellflower's cross country squad. Long hours and many miles of hard training go into each runner until they take the lead or exhaust themselves trying.

Suburban League MVP Cathy Moore (bottom left) and teammate Judy Hendrickson (bottom right) put the ball away, while teammate Cindy Pendleton stands nearby ready for a possible block.

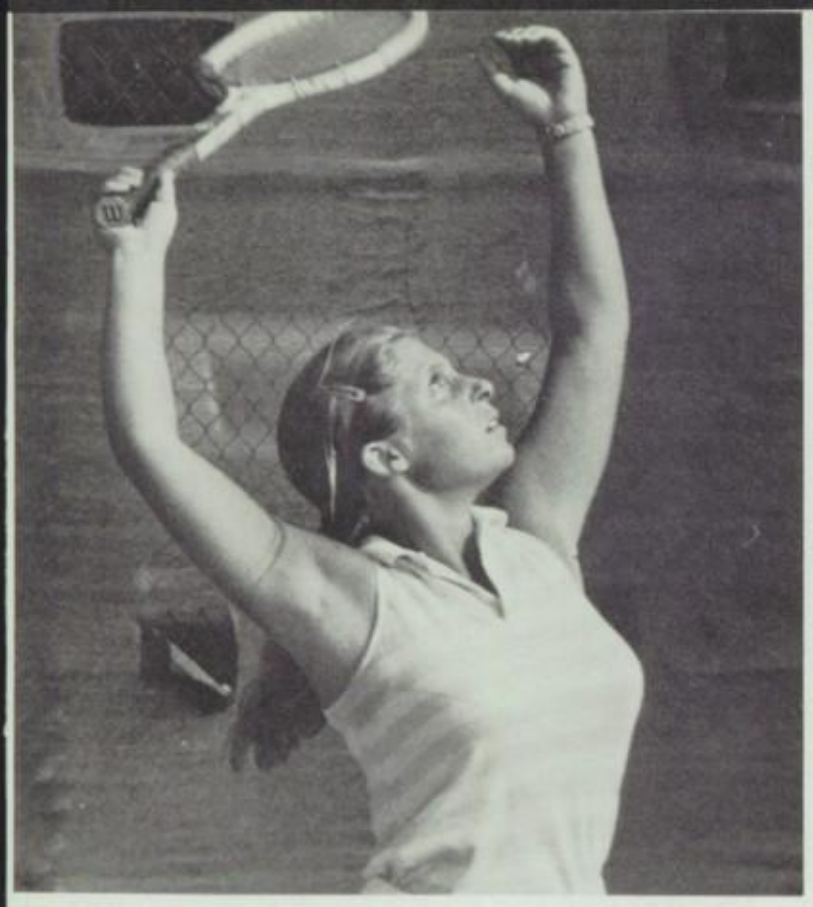
Varsity And JV Volleyball

Senior server Debbie Granville (left) smacks another over the net while varsity setter Cindi Selph dives to save the ball (below).

Girls Varsity Tennis

At top left #2 Suburban League singles player senior Carmen Gomez, a transfer student from South Gate, attempts to drop shot her opponent. Pictured in intense concentration (at top right), Hayley Shore, another senior transferee, backhands the ball back. (At bottom right) the 1978 Suburban League champions for the third straight year are shown.



photos by Bill Brown and Tom Obbema

Girls' JV Tennis

Keeping your eyes on the ball is half the game, and perfect concentration is displayed by JV netter Kristy Kane (right) as she strokes another return. The JV's took first place in league with a 13-1 record.

Soccer

In only its second season as an interschool sport at BHS, the varsity soccer team, a mixing pot and alliance of the nations of the world, put together a 3-9 record on the year and look forward to more successful finish for next year.

JV, Varsity Wrestling

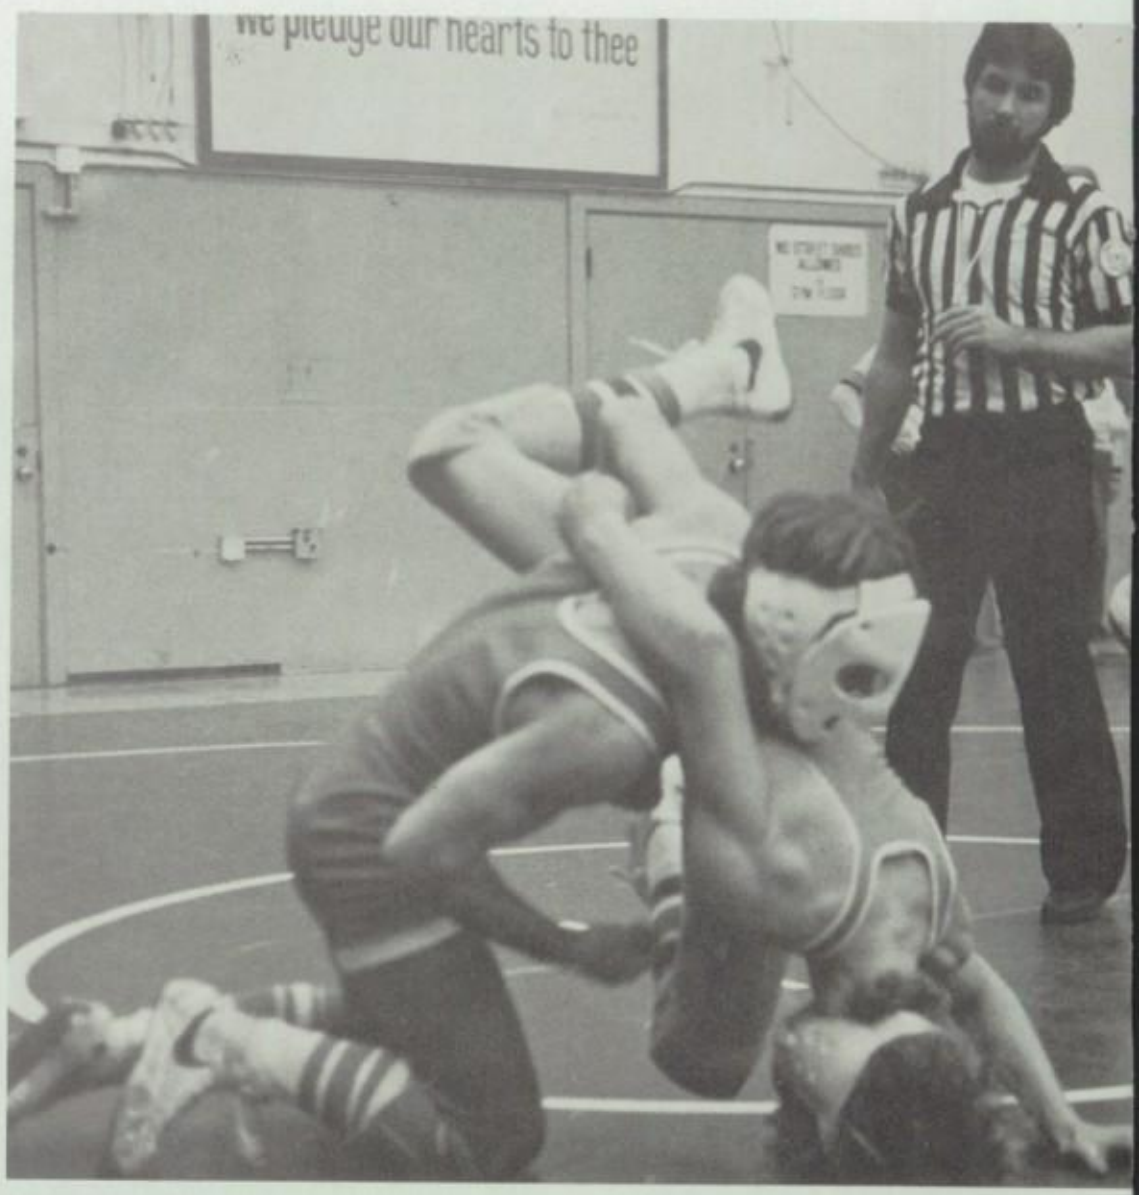
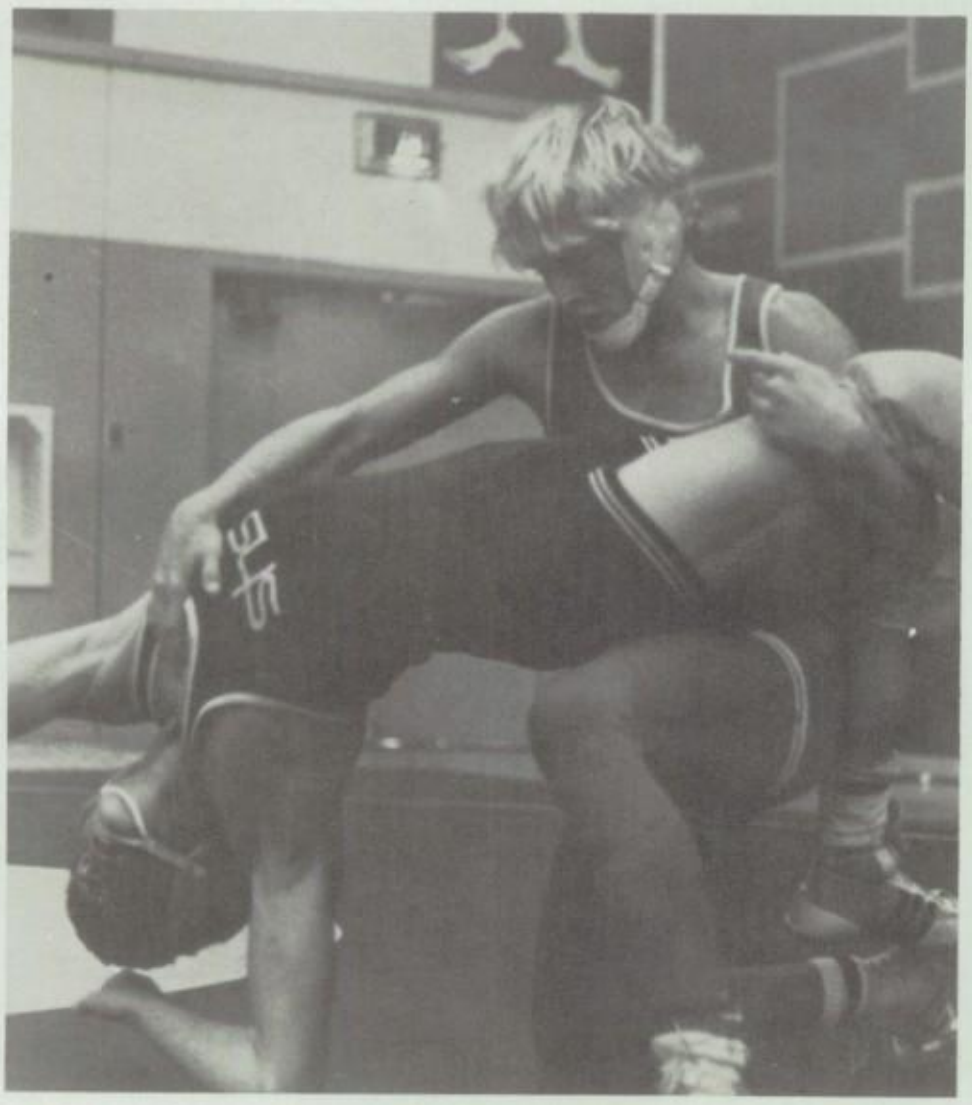
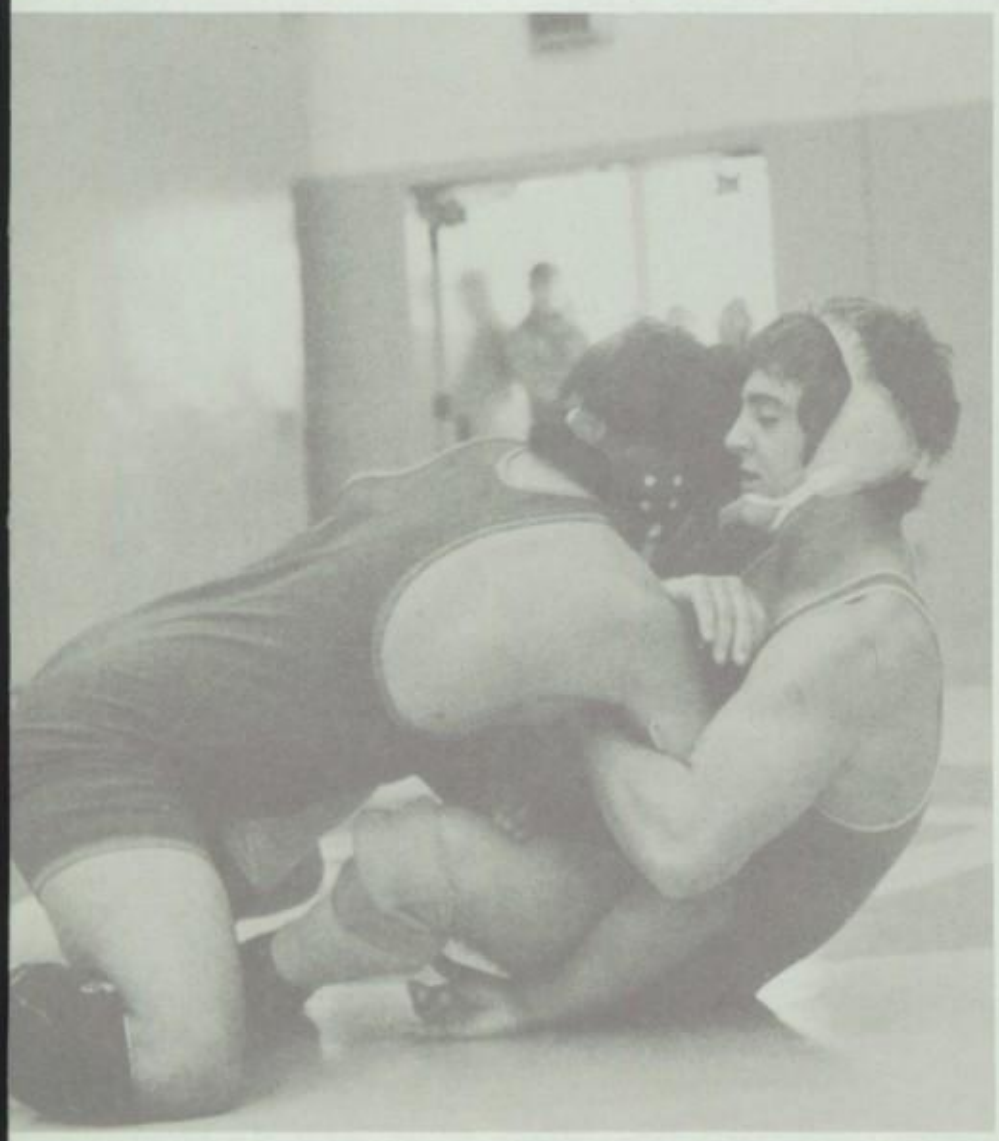
Sweating, straining with every muscle for their victories, Bellflower's matmen (top) wound up the year with a 5-2 record. Some of the more outstanding performers were Dave Bybee (far left), Bernie Hagadorn (above and left) and Gary Rigano (center, left), all medalists in league finals and CIF competitors.

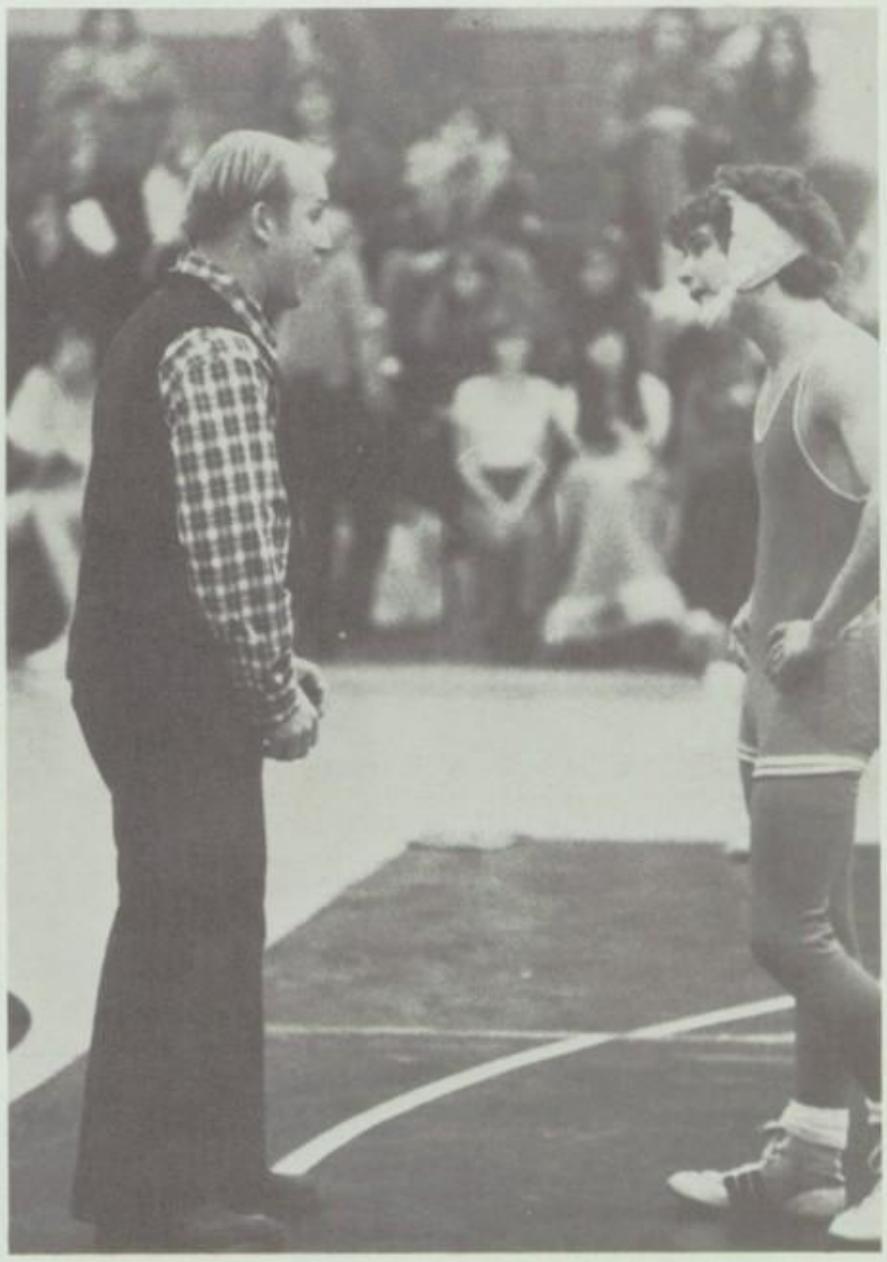
Although sometimes reminiscent of the "Masked Marvel" era (right), there can be no mistaking the sheer determination during the match, or the camaraderie and sportsmanship that prevails throughout the wrestlers.

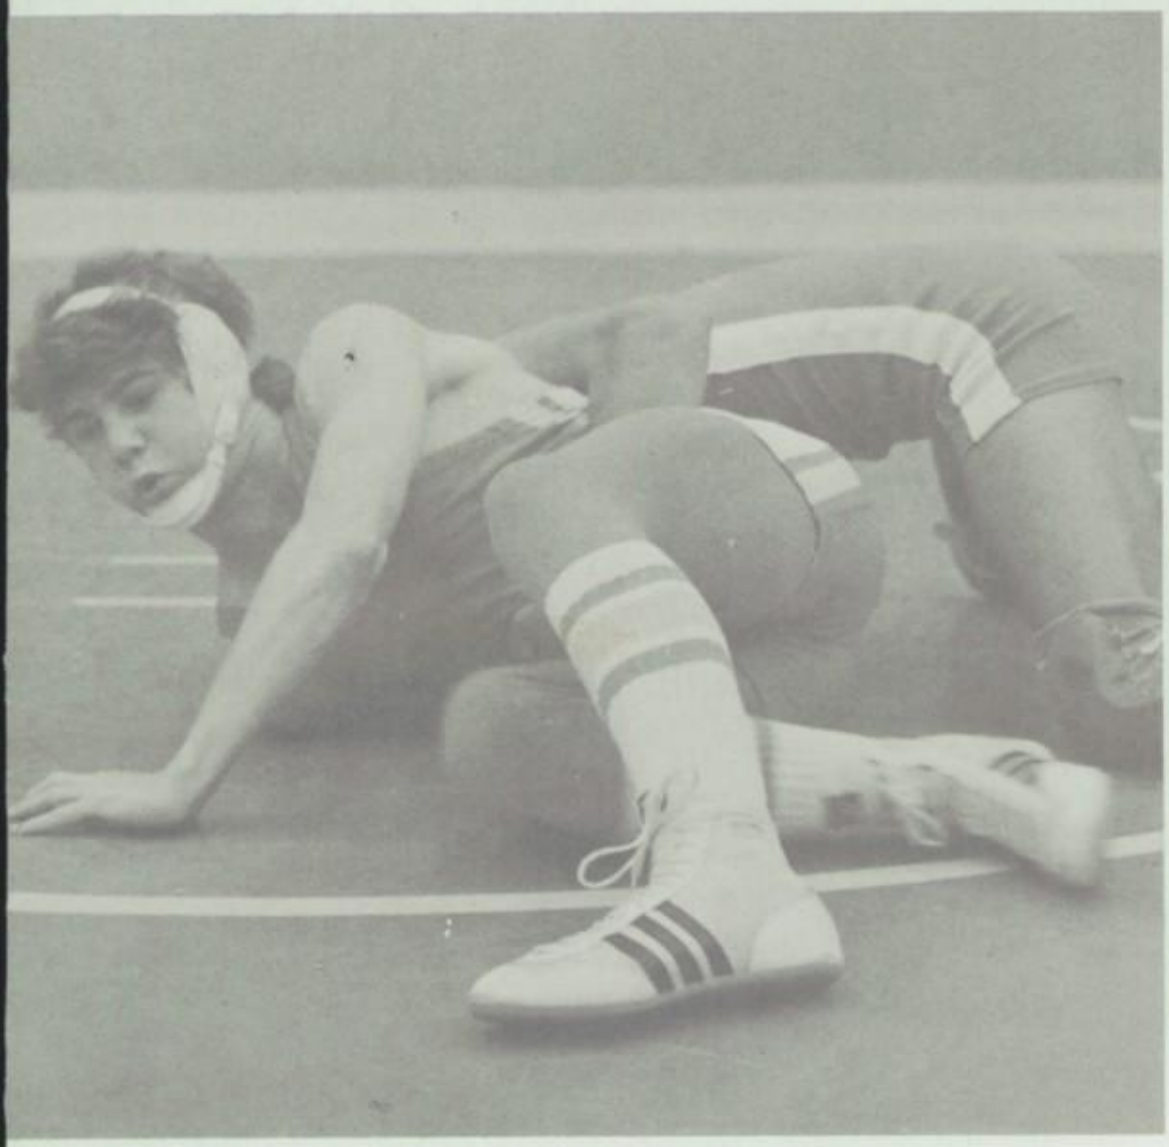




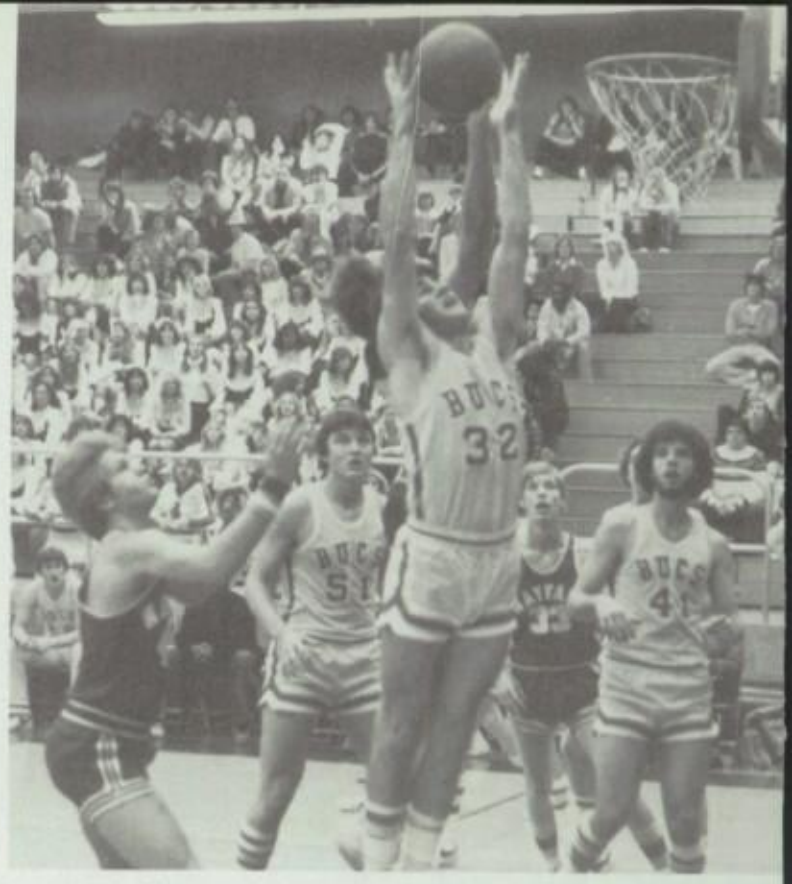
photos by Bill Brown







Technique is, aside from strength, the name of the the game, as exhibited by Bernie Hagadorn (above). Varsity coach Dave Brown always has helpful hints, much to the consternation of some (top).



Varsity Basketball

Rebounding was one of the strong points in Bellflower's 10-4 league season with junior Craig Martin (below, right) also giving the team extra punch with his scoring. Also helping with the board chores was senior forward Brian Hunsaker (above, right).

Though not always coming down with the ball, senior forward Kevin Boyce was a major factor in the team's comeback from its three key losses with his consistent play and dazzling rebounds (above). Center Bob Hyink, tallest in the team at 6'6", works motion at the top of the key against the only team Bellflower couldn't defeat, crosstown rival Mayfair (left).

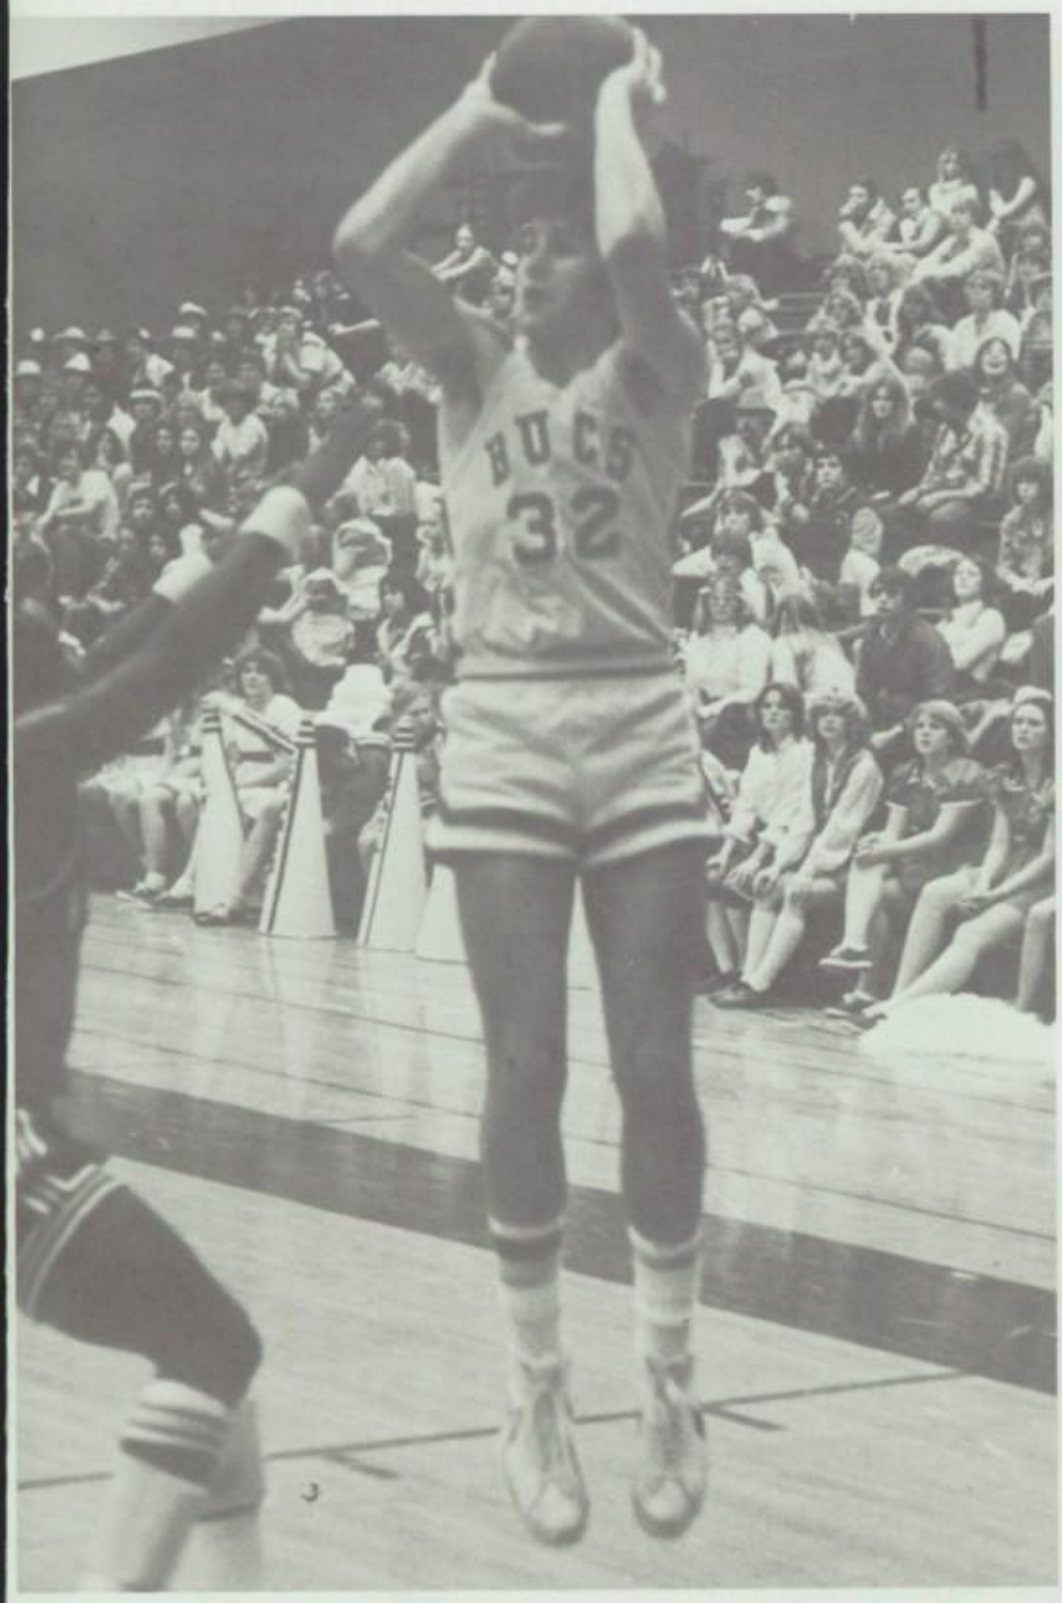
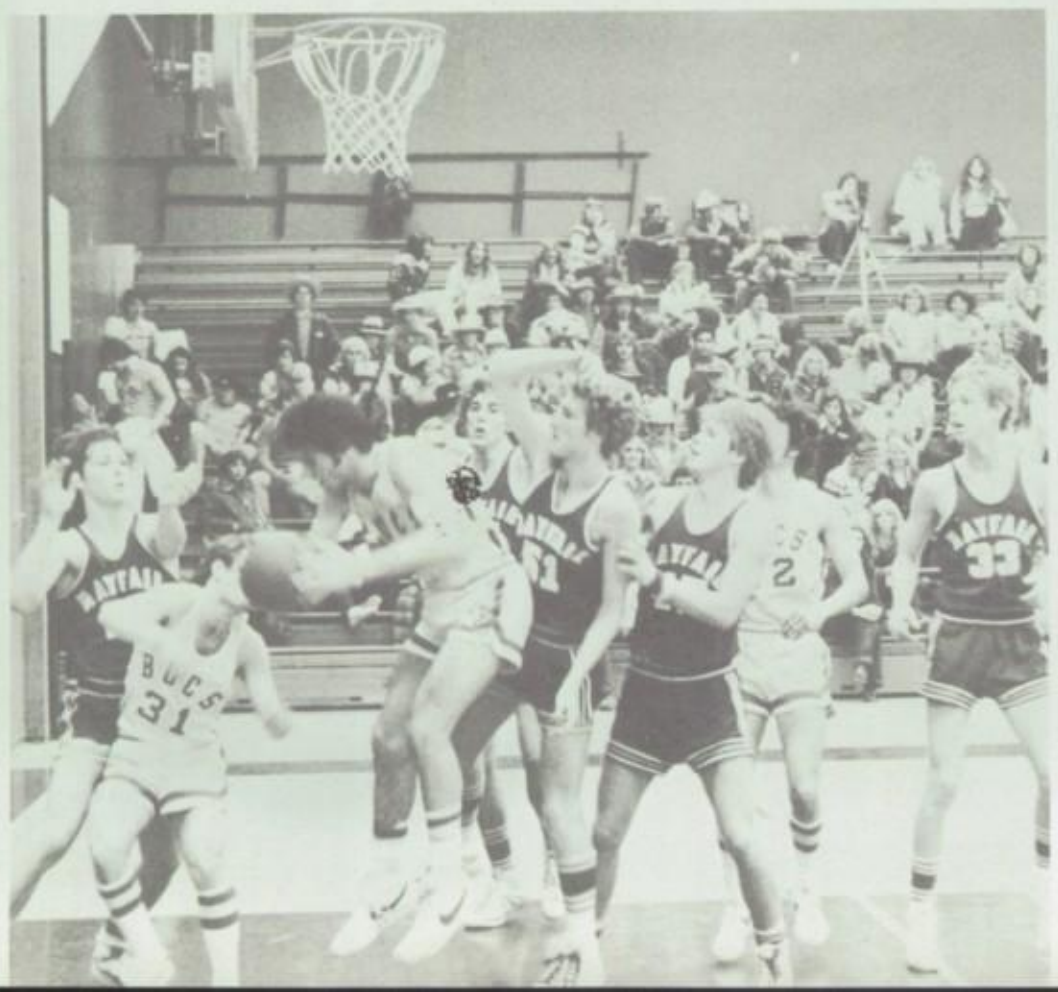
Keeping his eye on the basket and his hand on the ball, team co-captain Kevin Boyce is a picture of concentration (above, right) but also takes his lumps (below, right). Coach Steve Dunnam, also a rookie to the varsity squad, peeks at the scoreboard from a time-out huddle. Cagers went to CIF but lost a close one to Duarte in the first round.





Exhibiting his almost uncanny grace in his flowing jump shot (top, left) and coming down with rebounds in the thick of action are commonplace (top right, left) for the team's other captain, Brian Hunsaker.

JV Basketball

On the JV scene, the cagers wound up an average season with an 8-6 record. A passing lane is denied by Robert Stockwell (above, right) while center Todd Simmons watches a partially blocked shot fall short (below, right).

Center Paul Rensberger covers the area under the basket (below) and looks on at a rebound that he couldn't get to (bottom). During a time out, coach Mark Warrell outlines another play (below, right), and Paul Rozelle follows through for the score (right).

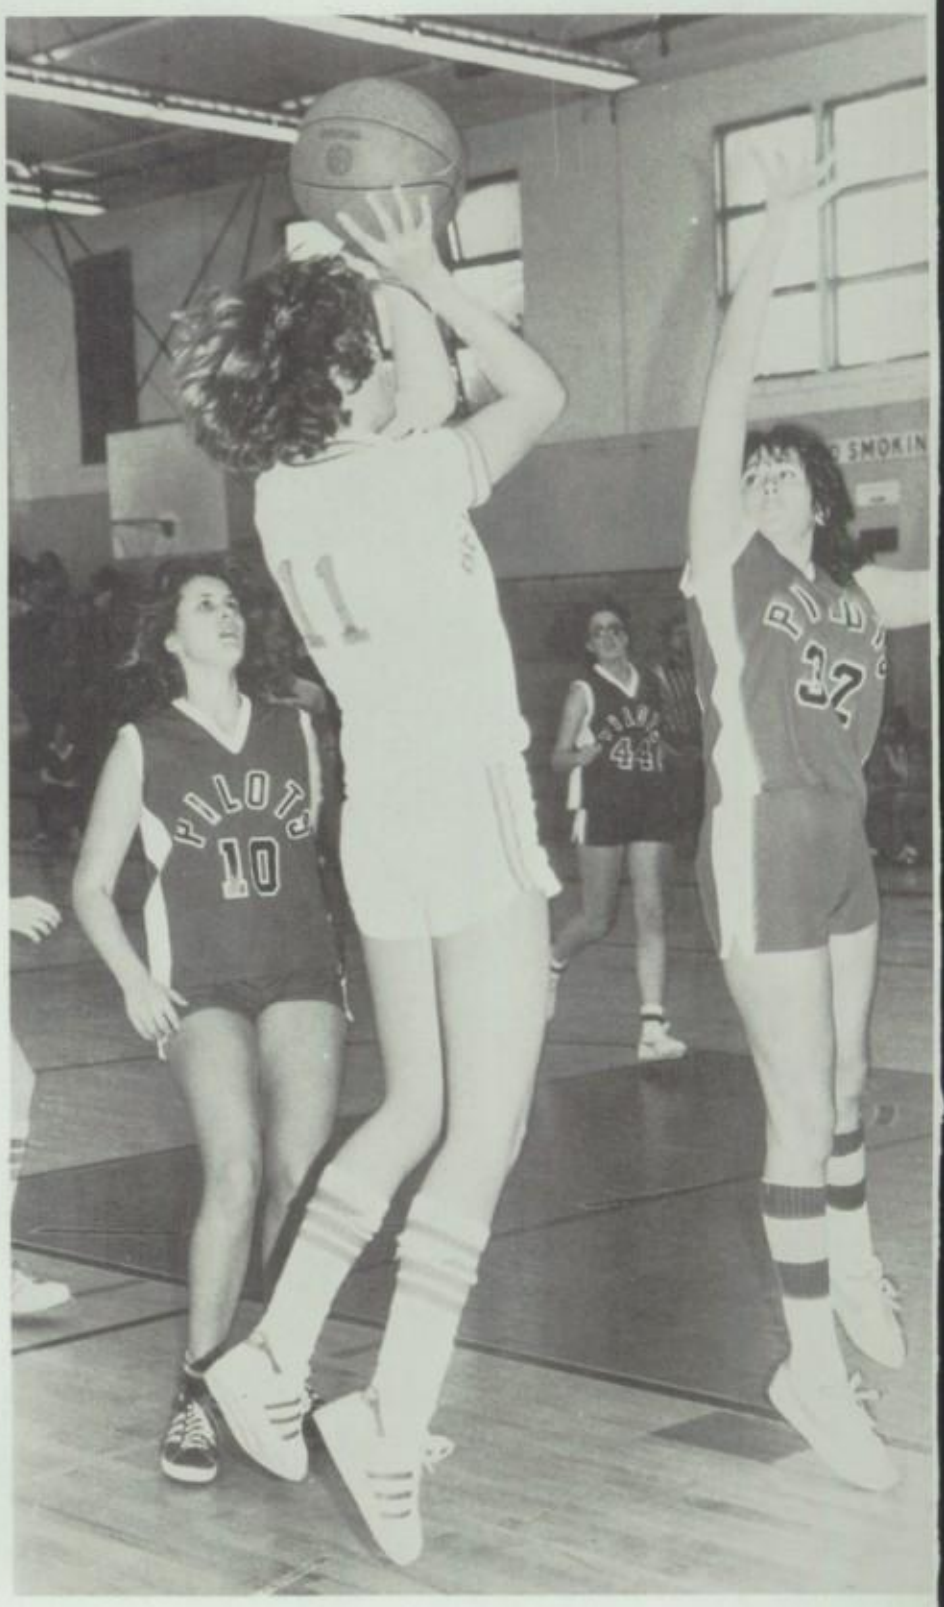
Frosh Basketball

Learning the basics of high school play in their first year at Bellflower, the freshman team, headed by coach Rich Weiman, ended its season with an admirable 9-5 record. Showing a strong dribble-drive, Glenn Whetzel penetrates the opposing defense.

Girls' JV, Varsity Basketball



Giving their all in rebounding, jumping, shooting and dribbling, the cagerettes, led by Cathy Moore, Tanya Dummar and Debbie Wooldridge, finished their league season with only a single loss. Moore (bottom, far right) was one of the team's most consistent players.

The girls' games are determined in the air as demonstrated by Debbie Wooldridge and Vicky Wilson (right), fighting for a rebound. A blocked shot (below, right) and Wilson (below), holding the ball high to set up a pass, highlight action.

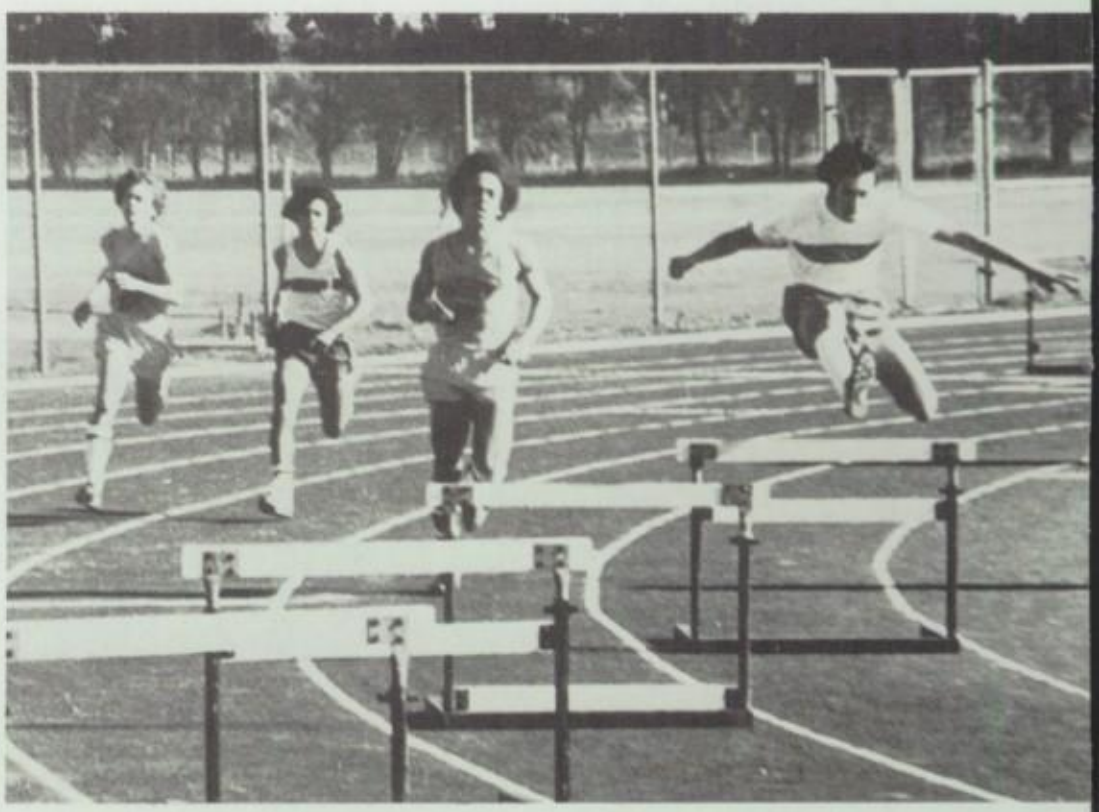
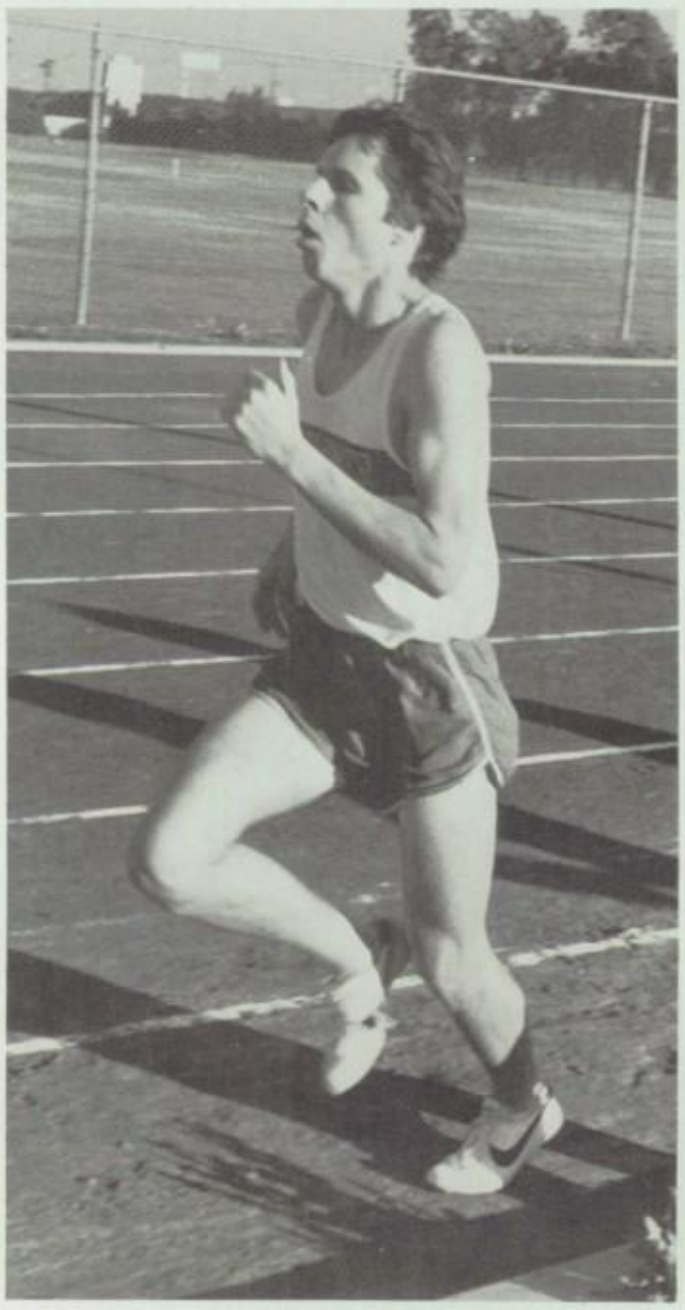
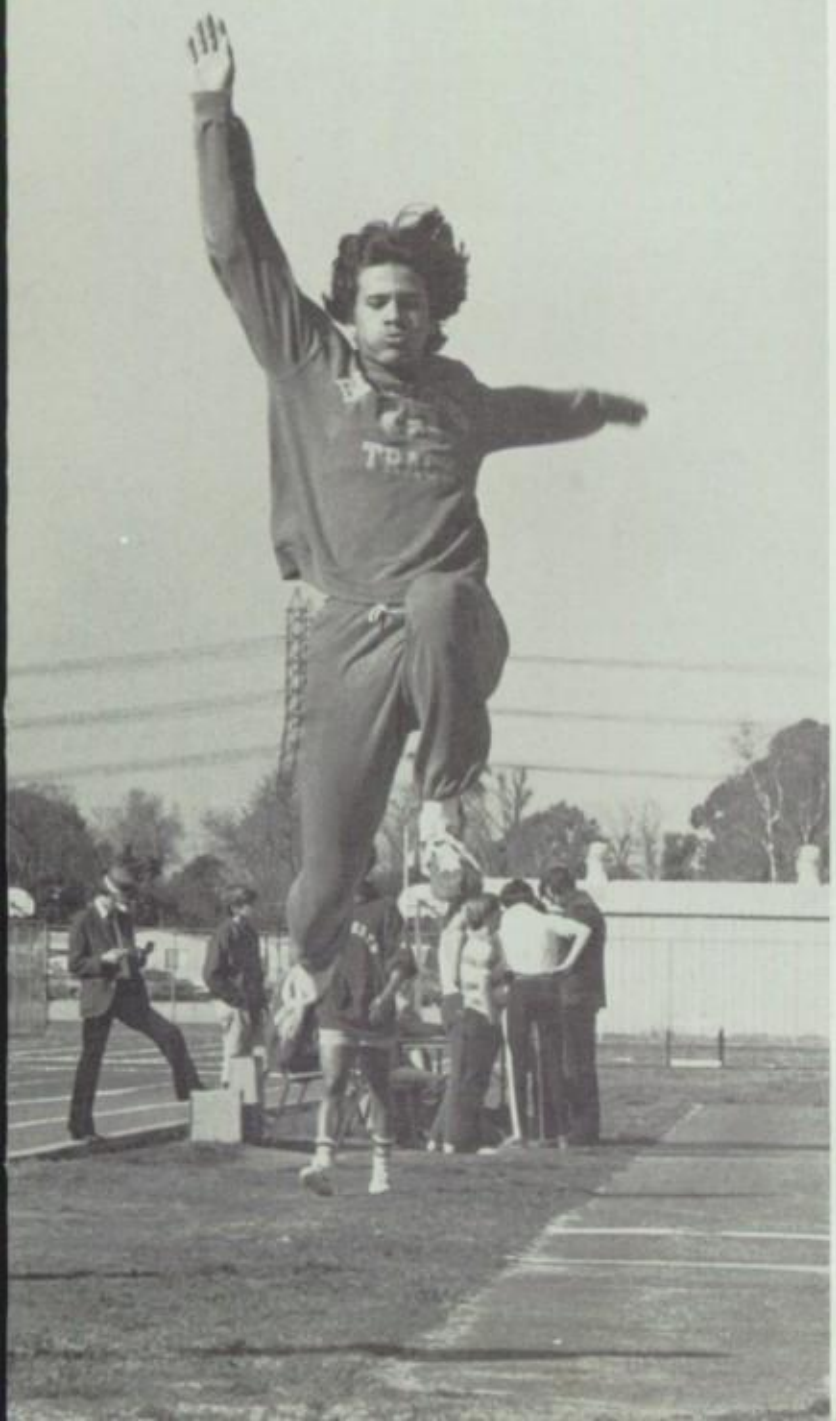
Track

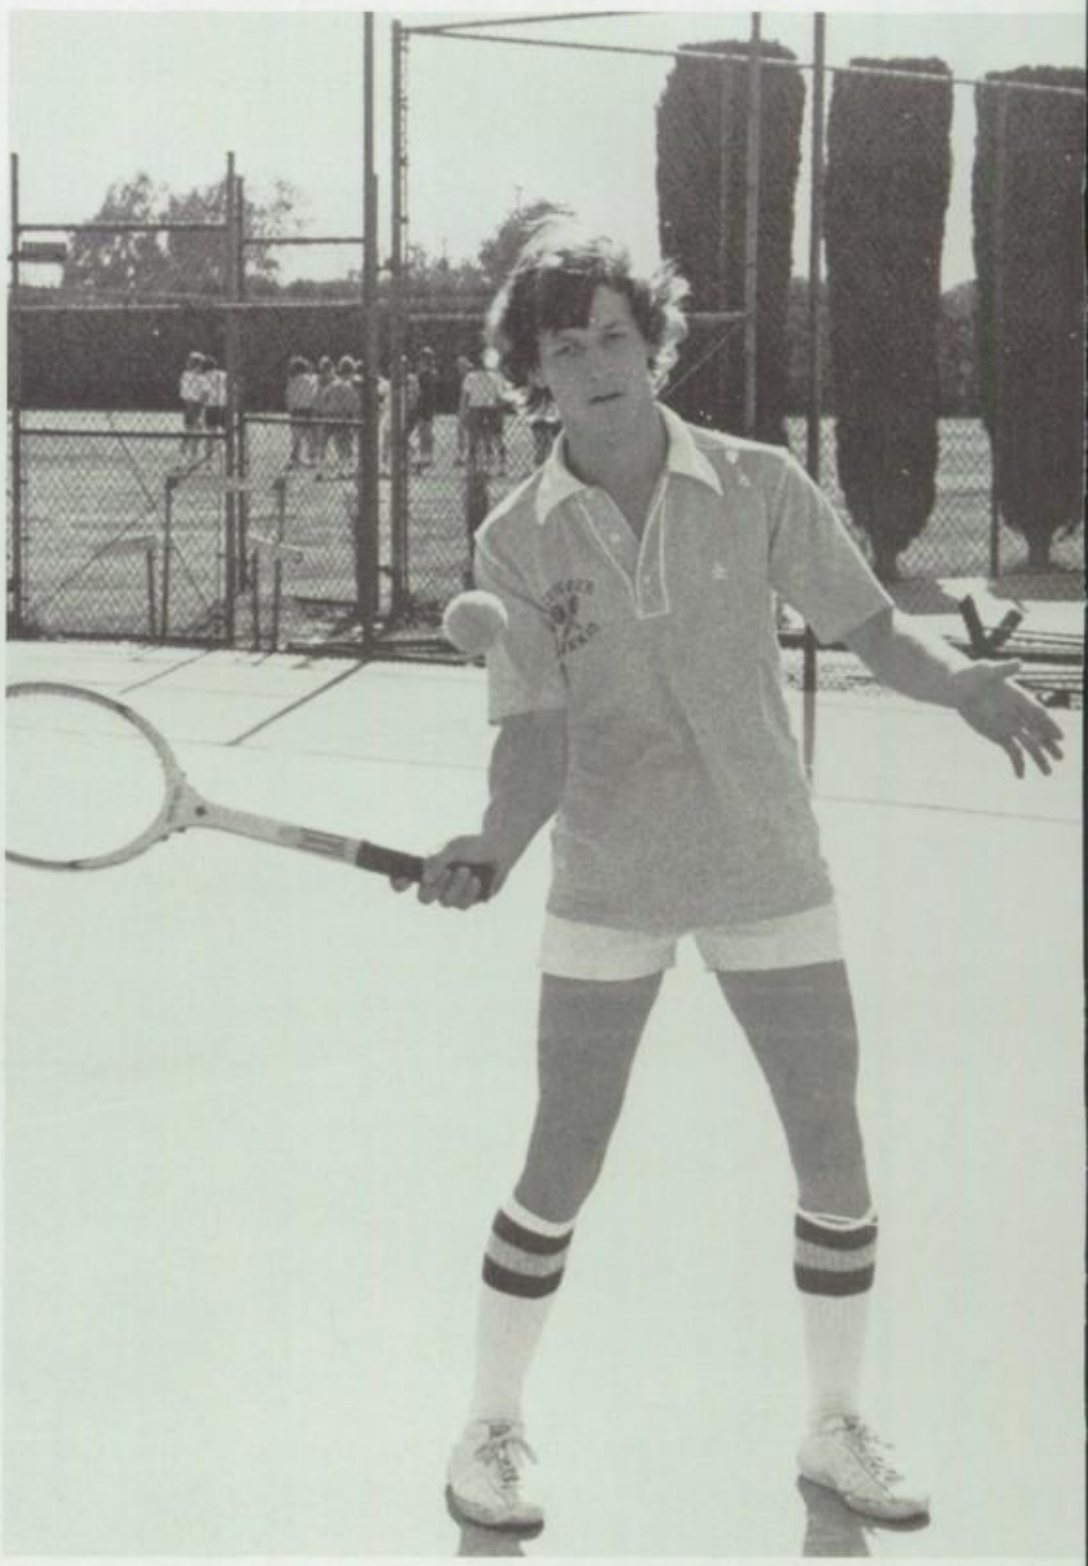


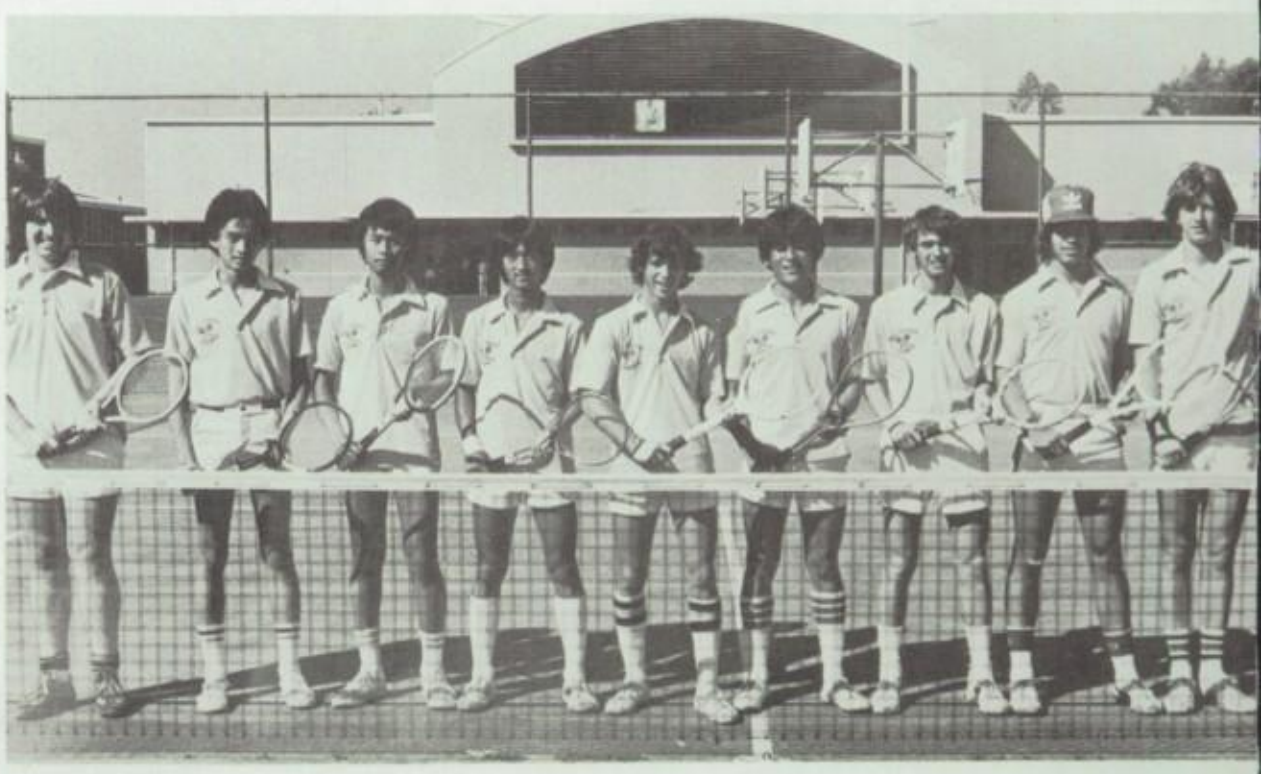


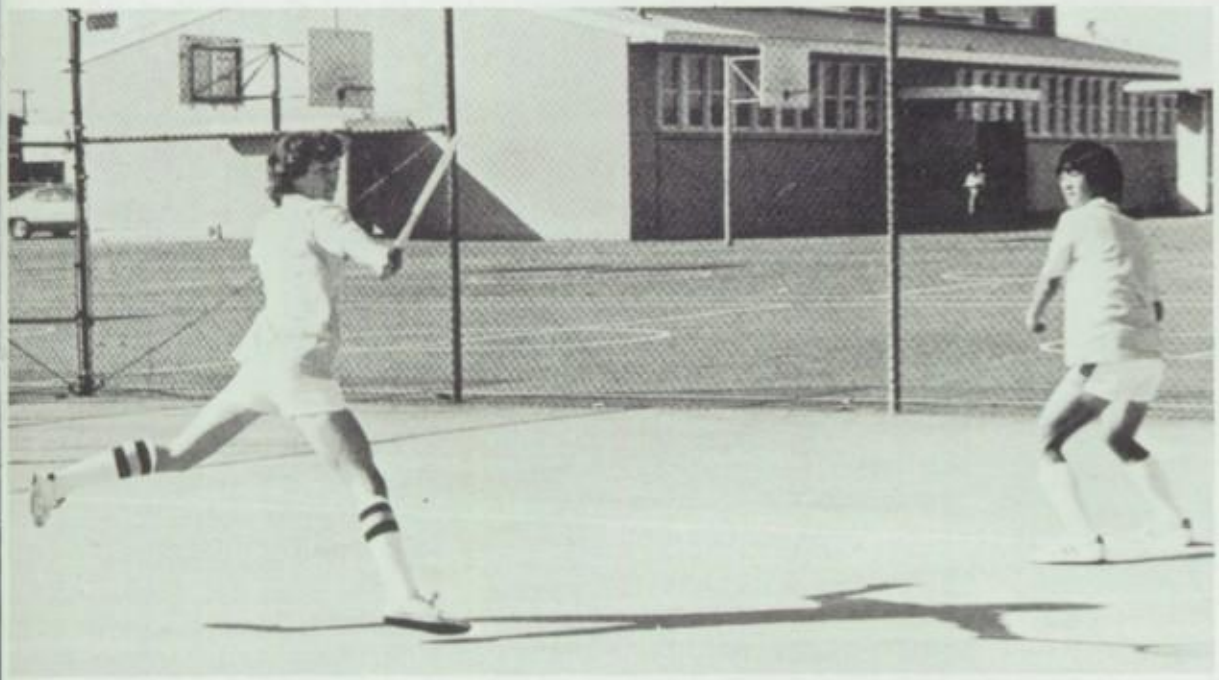


Centering the squad around four key characters, this year's track team was a strong favorite for the league title. John Galindo in the hurdle races and long and triple jumps, John DeMatto in the shot put and discus throw, school record holder Clark Eliot in the pole vault and Ricky Lowrey giving added depth formed the base for a young team.

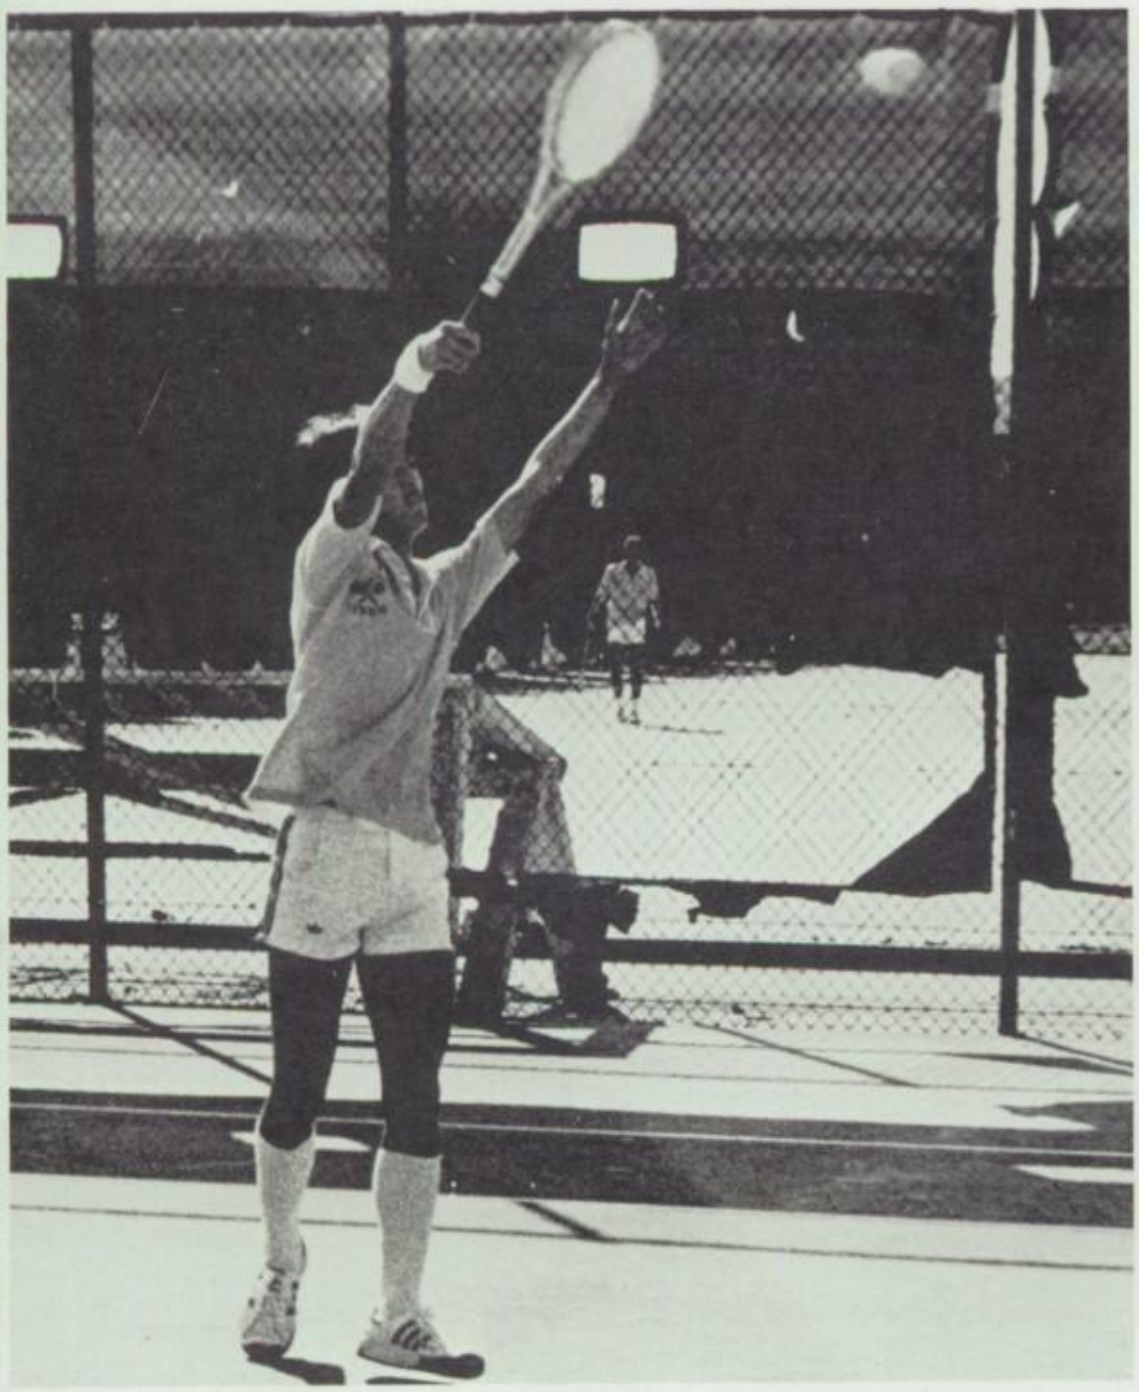
Varsity Tennis

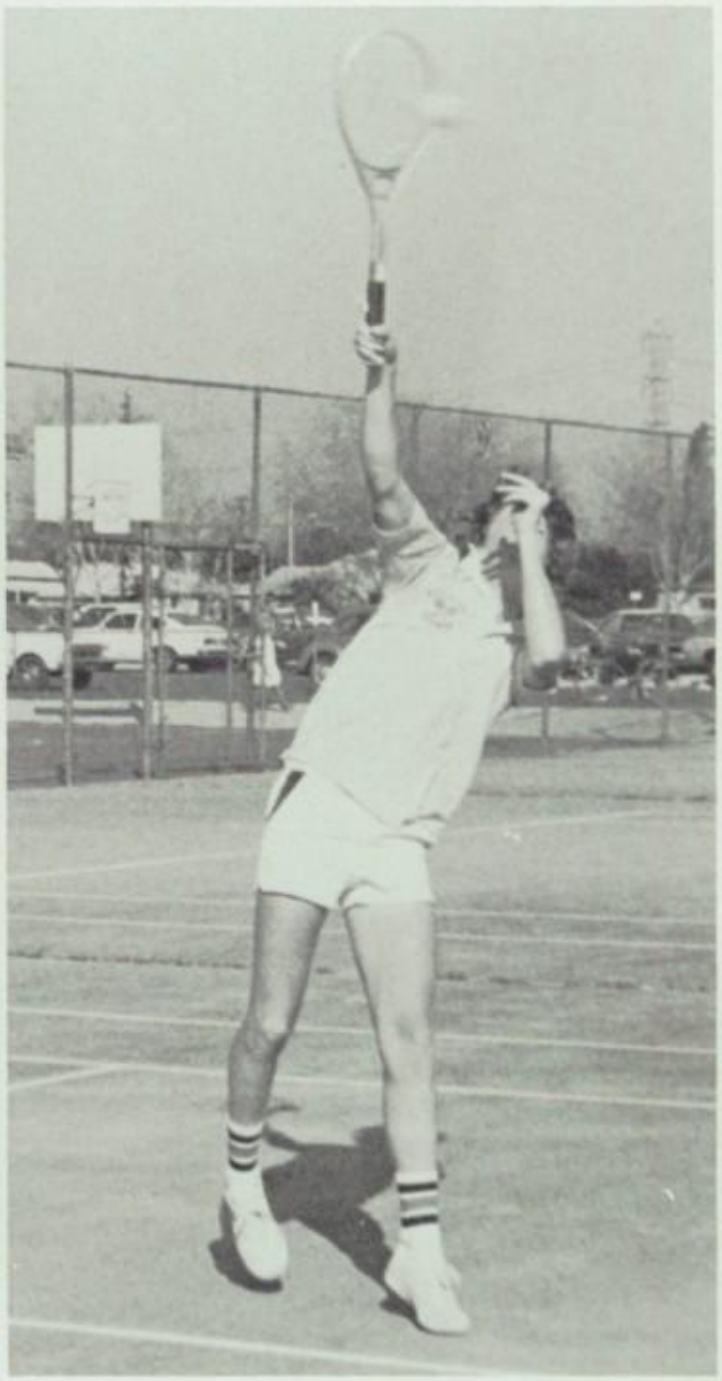






Sporting another strong tennis team taking the court for Bellflower, the netters are favored to recapture the league title for the 16th time in 17 years.





JV Tennis

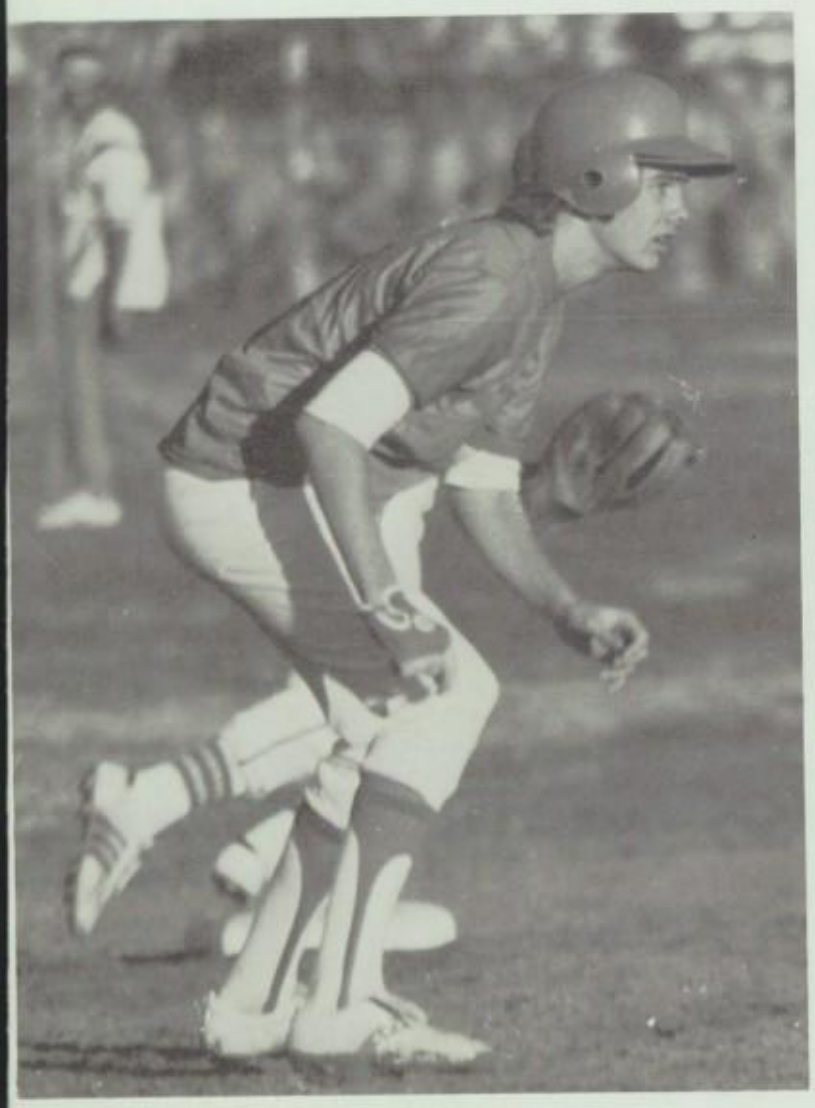
Beating its opponents soundly, a very strong JV tennis team, led by Paul Rozelle and Russ Lazicki, tore up the Suburban League in anticipation of their varsity seasons next year.

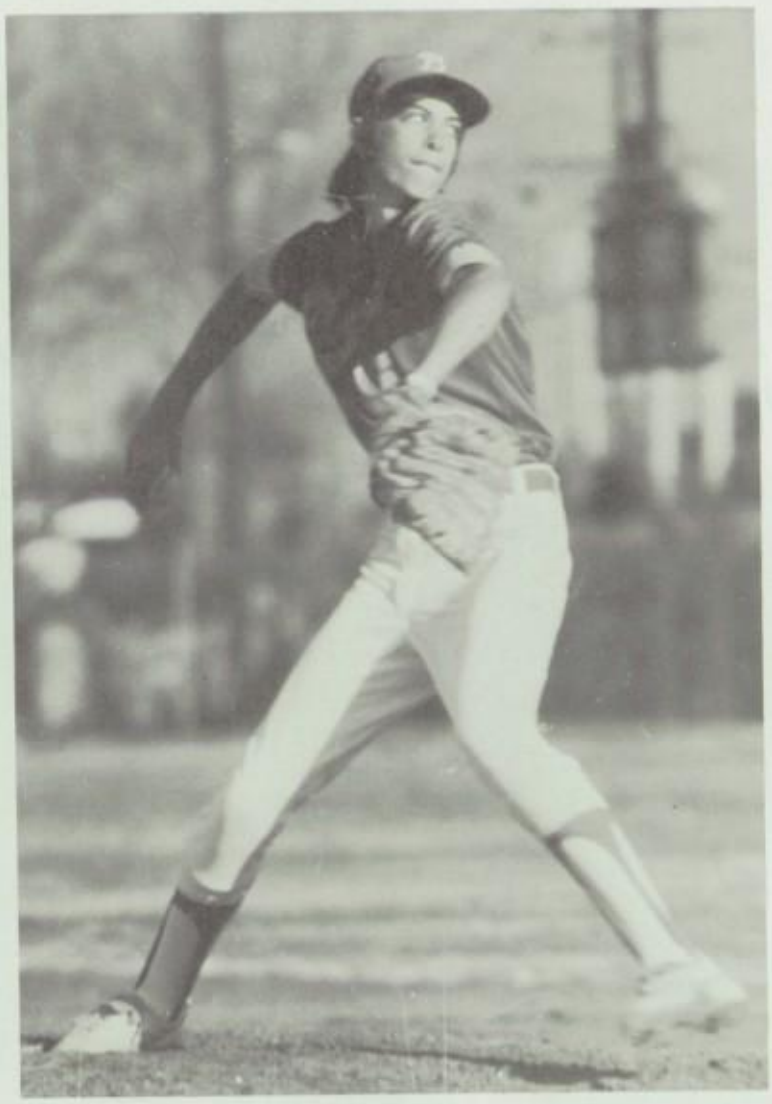
Varsity Baseball

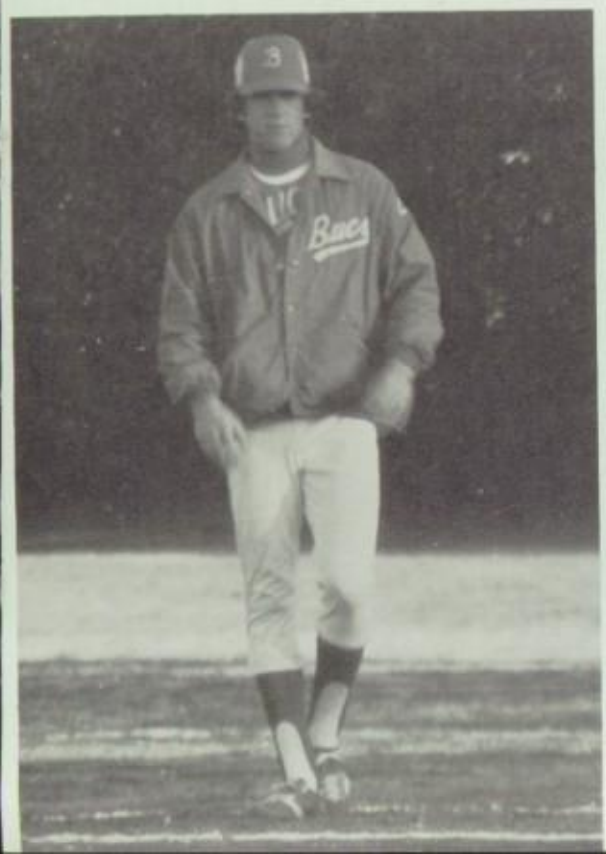
Breaking in as an even chance to take this year's league championship, the varsity baseball team with good hitting and excellent pitching, exhibits spirit and style in its play. Bellflower's top performers were shortstop Brian Hunsaker and pitcher Dave Henderson.

JV Baseball

Led by rookie coach Gary Ficociello, the JV baseball team added valuable experience to its play, shaping up toward the end of its season and looking forward to varsity next year.







Varsity Golf

Four of this year's varsity golf squad pose with coach Bruce Harrington, a rookie himself this year. Showing solid ability, the team has a chance for the league title even after the devastating loss of national class golfer Dave Games from last year.

JV, Varsity Badminton

Starting their second season in the Moore League, this year's girl's varsity badminton team, while not in first place, is holding its own in a very tough competitive level. Kitty Berg and Cindy Brown lead the team in its quest for the CIF tournament.

JV Softball

Doing well with the one-time varsity coach Cindy Campeau, a young girls' JV softball team is gaining valuable experience toward its promising varsity season.

Varsity Softball

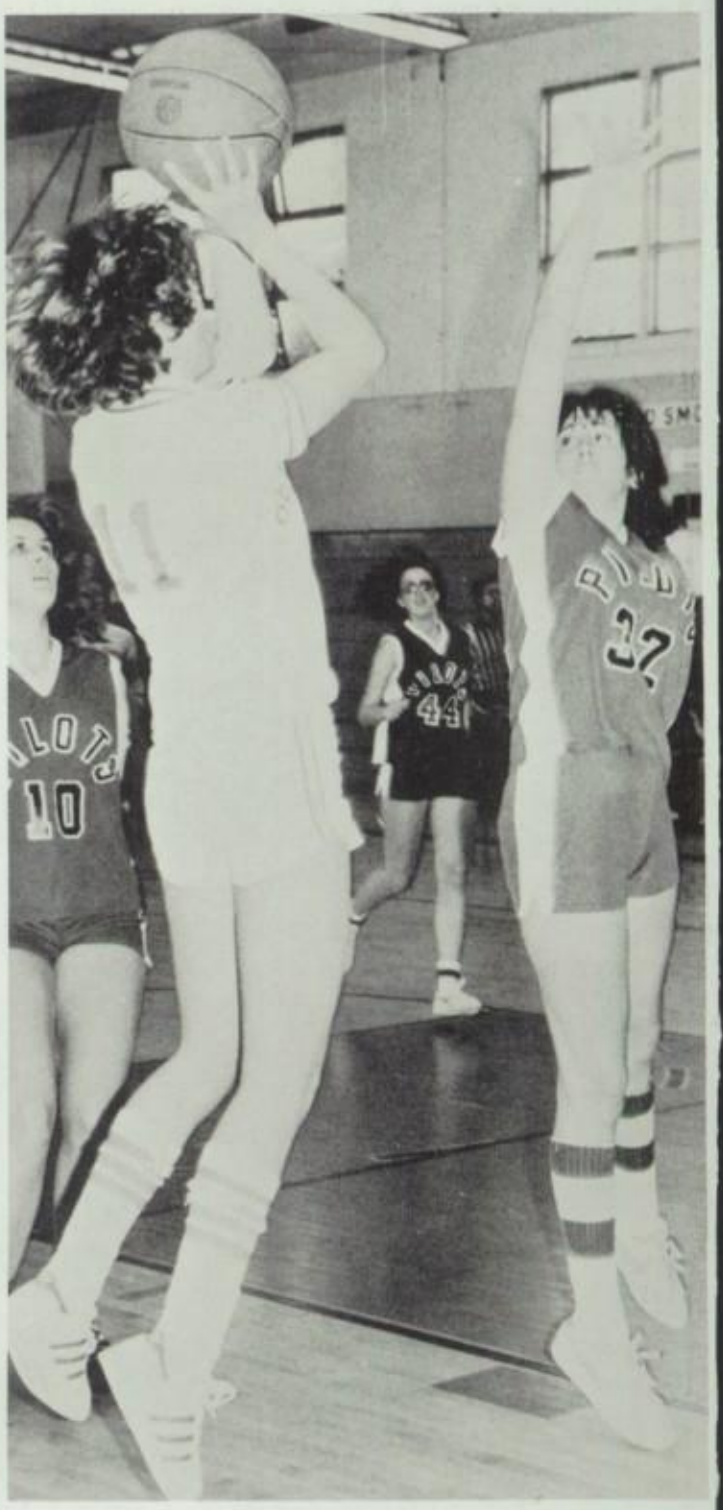
With Mayfair the only obstacle between them and a league championship, this year's girls' varsity softball players have proved a major power in this year's title race, thanks to new coach Maureen Ferrin, who has national level experience.

Girls' Athletes of the Year

The Girls' Athletes of the Year awards will most likely be selected from among those shown on this page. Cathy Moore, with six varsity letters in basketball (four) and in volleyball (two), had her career highlighted this year wih All-American Honors in volleyball. She recieved All-CIF (2nd team) honors in basketball—all while accumulating a 3.6 GPA. Debbie Wooldridge has earned eight varsity—three in basketball, two each in volleyball and softball and one in cross country. Debbie has made all-league in both basketball and softball. Chris Gilbert (3.96 GPA) is the leading candidate for Girls' Scholar-Athlete. She's earned five varsity letters—three in track and two in tennis.

Debbie Wooldridge

Chris Gilbert



Cathy Moore

Boys' Athletes Of The Year

The candidates for Boys' 1978-79 Athletes of the Year will probably be from those shown here. Brian Hunsaker, while maintaining a 3.45 GPA, has earned six varsity letters (two each in football, basketball and baseball), with all-league honors in basketball. Scott Lovering (five varsity letters—two each in football and baseball, and one in basketball) is eyeing an Arizona University scholarship. Clark Eliot, who recently set a school record 15'0" in the pole vault, has accumulated five varsity letters (three in track and two in cross country). Rick Lowrey (3.85 GPA while capturing six varsity letters—three in track, two in cross country and one in basketball), is the likely candidate for Scholar Athlete of the Year.

Blade Staff

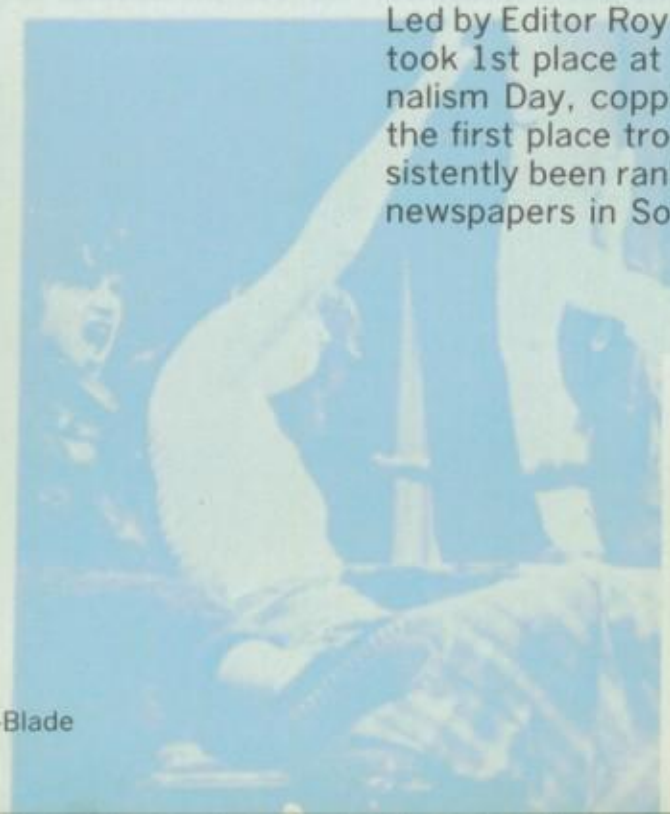
Led by Editor Roy Lansdown, the Blade Staff took 1st place at the Cerritos College Journalism Day, copping more than one-half of the first place trophies. The Blade has consistently been ranked one of the top student newspapers in Southern California.



Yearbook Staff

Throughout the year the Yearbook Staff has put in extended and frustrating hours in order to meet the deadlines. Instead of working from Monday to Friday, many staff members worked from Monday to Monday, side by side with advisor Skip McDowell. With all the hours put in by this staff, they were able to give the Buccaneers a Treasure Chest filled with more color and special effects than ever before.

We Gave It All We Had!!!

Choosing the theme for the Treasure Chest this year was a difficult task, since we had such a wide variety to pick from. After days of debating, we finally decided on "Giving it all ya got." We felt that this phrase carried the feeling we wanted to get across to all the people who looked at the book. After deciding on the theme, we tried to carry the feeling throughout the pages with pictures of people giving their all.

The annual staff showed their enthusiasm throughout the year by yielding a yearbook with more color pages and special effects than ever before. The book itself is larger than last year's and contains the work of a staff who gave their all to produce it.

The entire staff did a fantastic job and should all be commended for their outstanding work. There are a few people who should be recognized for doing much more than their shares to make this a terrific yearbook. Much appreciation goes to David Bybee, Bruce Weber and Tom Obbema for all their super color photos, and a special thanks is extended to Rusty Morris, who was not even on the staff, for his help. All the artwork in the annual was completed by two very talented guys. To Tony Cerza and Brian Carrillo, I give much gratitude for their contributions to the cover and division pages. I would also like to acknowledge Steve Wagner, our yearbook representative, for all his help on layouts, and to P.J. Studios for printing all our color. We couldn't have made it without either of you. Lastly I give a warm thanks to our advisor Skip McDowell for keeping us going.
